DEVELOPING THE COMPLETE PLAYER

Head coach Brian Kelly and the University of Cincinnati football program have made a pledge to improve each student-athlete in five core areas — intellectual, social, spiritual, physical, and skill. Together, these five components develop a complete player and give each individual a knowledge base that extends beyond the football field.

BIG EAST CONFERENCE

IN MEMORIAM
The University of Cincinnati lost a trio of legends over the winter with the passing of Jim Kelly Sr., Glenn Sample, and Mike Woods, three of the top names in UC football history.

Kelly was a member of the Bearcats family for the past 50 years, as a student-athlete, coach, administrator, and fan. Sample was a football letterwinner from 1950-52 and a former captain, while Woods was the first consensus first-team All-American in school history.

INTELLECTUAL DEVELOPMENT

The University of Cincinnati has established itself as a premier academic institution not only in the BIG EAST, but across the nation. U.S. News & World Report ranks 12 UC programs among the Top 10 in the country while another 26 programs are ranked among the Top 50 in the nation.

The UC football program is also striving to meet those same levels of national success both on the field and in the classroom. The past three seasons, 32 Bearcats football players have been named to the BIG EAST All-Academic Football Team, including 2009 NFL Draft pick and consensus all-America punter Kevin Huber. UC received 2008 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Academic Achievement honorable mention accolades for its graduation success rate of over 90 percent for the entering class of 2001. UC was one of seven programs nationally to achieve over the 90 percent plateau. The Bearcats also ranked fourth in Higher Ed Watch's 2008 Academic BCS Rankings.

Success like that doesn't happen without hard work. It involves a team approach, including the coaches, academic support services, and the student-athletes.

"We're linked into the college's academic standards, and our coaches are very involved in the academic lives of our players in the same way we are involved in their athletic lives," said head coach Brian Kelly.

"When we talk about intellectual development, it is a two-fold process," he continued. "First, for the coaches, it's about interaction with our players. We have a responsibility to know what they are doing as students. Are they going to class? Are they being successful in the classroom? Our coaches need to know that relative to the student-athletes they work with.

"Second, for the players, are they utilizing the resources they have available to them?"

Student-athletes have access to the Nancy Hamant Academic Center located in the recently opened Richard E. Lindner Center, which also houses the team's locker room, training room, and weight training facilities.

Cincinnati student-athletes receive academic advising assistance and have access to early registration through priority registration. Study hall, which is held Monday through Friday, is required for freshmen and open to all student-athletes. Tutoring is also available.

DEVELOPING THE COMPLETE PLAYER

"The coaches expect greatness from each of us both on and off the field. The classroom is just another place they push us to excel as champions."
— Mike Daniels, 2008 UC graduate and current football graduate assistant

"The Lindner Center is a world-class facility and you know it from the time you walk in the front door. Our academic center is no exception. Within less than a football field from our locker room, we have all the resources we need to succeed in the classroom. The people who work in the academic center make sure we reach our potential."
— Kevin Huber, former all-America punter and a 2009 NFL Draft Pick now playing for the Cincinnati Bengals

"The academic services staff is a big part of the success we have academically here at UC. They work non-stop and deserve a lot of the credit for our success. The academic center supplies us with all the tools we need to succeed – computers, study halls, and tutoring services all right there in the same building as we work and train."
— Jon Carpenter, former UC Academic All-BIG EAST Team linebacker, 2008 UC graduate, currently working on master's at Cincinnati as a football graduate assistant

SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT

In the Greater Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky community, University of Cincinnati student-athletes serve as representatives of the university and its department of athletics. Bearcats student-athletes are held to a higher level of accountability and responsibility both within the campus environment and the community.

"It's extremely important that our players understand they are different," said head coach Brian Kelly. "Because of that, they need to carry themselves in a manner that reflects positively on UC football and the university.

"They are going to be challenged into making good decisions every day as they grow up," he added. "As head coach, I hold all of my players accountable for their actions. That's called growing up . . . maturing socially."

The University and surrounding communities offer many opportunities for social development. There are over 300 registered student organizations, including academic honoraries and organizations, residence hall groups, student government, fraternities, and multicultural groups.

Cincinnati, Ohio
The City of Cincinnati, or the "Queen City" as it is known, is just a small portion of the nation's 24th-largest media market. Also a part of the region called the "Tri-State" – because of its proximity to Northern Kentucky and Southeast Indiana – Cincinnati is a city of unique individual neighborhoods nestled inside of the seven hills surrounding the city.

Students at UC are in the heart of Clifton, a college neighborhood which sits 10 minutes northwest of the downtown area between the main I-71 and I-75 arteries. UC's campus is within walking distance of all the amenities a UC student might require in the Uptown and Short Vine shopping districts.

The City of Cincinnati is known as a sports town and the people support their home teams, which besides the Bearcats, include professional sports franchises such as the Cincinnati Reds and Cincinnati Bengals.

Downtown Cincinnati centers around picturesque Fountain Square. From there you are within 15 miles of some of the region's best attractions such as the Kings Island Amusement Park, the world-renowned Cincinnati Zoo, and the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center as well as hundreds of outdoor activities throughout the region. Cincinnati is the heart of a diverse regional community which is the perfect place to raise a family.

DEVELOPING THE COMPLETE PLAYER

"This is a unique place where a college community has become intertwined amongst a much larger urban community without losing the feel of what the college experience should be. Student-athletes should realize they are not coming to UC for the nightlife or the social experience first. They are coming to the University of Cincinnati to get a degree and play football."

— Brian Kelly, Head Coach

"Cincinnati is a great place to attend college and play football. We have a true campus environment with everything we need at our fingertips, but we have an ever-expanding city that provides us with the cultural experiences we need to mature."

— Haruki Nakamura, former UC defensive back and 2008 NFL Draft Pick

"My college experience is everything I hoped it would be, mainly because of the 105-member family I have here with me everyday."

SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT

Head coach Brian Kelly and his staff believes in the importance of helping their student-athletes develop spiritually and understand the importance of giving back to the community.

"They must have an opportunity to be 'other-centered,'" Kelly said. "It can't always be about them. Being 'other-centered' allows you a path in life, whether it be through a religious involvement or through volunteerism. This idea is one of the three main goals of our department of athletics' action plan – CATAPULT."

The UC football program regularly participates throughout the city in a variety of charitable ventures and clinics via its community outreach program called "Cats in the Community."

"The bottom line is you have to be 'other-centered' in order to develop," said Kelly. "We work hard on getting our players to think outside of their own individual compartments and about how they can become involved in the bigger picture."

The Cincinnati area offers over 800 churches and temples representing more than 20 denominations. There are also more than 20 affiliated student organizations registered at UC, including Athletes in Action. Pregame chapel sessions and a midweek bible study group, both of which are open to all denominations, are available for UC football players.

DEVELOPING THE COMPLETE PLAYER

"In life, the difference between being a superstar and rising above the rest is passion. You can attain modest results without being passionate, but it's unlikely that you will be able to compete with more passionate people at the highest levels. At the University of Cincinnati we as a team focus together as one and strive for excellence."
— Dominick Goodman, former UC wide receiver

"In our lives, the things we do off the field in our community are much bigger than what we achieve on the field. We owe it to the people who are less fortunate than us. We have been blessed with an opportunity to use our gifts to make a difference whether it is picking up trash, signing autographs, or simply spending time with these people. We can make a difference and that is what UC football is really about."
— Digger Bujnoch, 2008 UC graduate, former UC offensive lineman

"Being here at UC has not only given me great opportunities to succeed on the field, but off the field and for the future as well. The world is bigger than football, but it's great to be able to use football as something to give back to the community that supports us so well."
— Dustin Grutza, former UC quarterback

PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT

An athlete can only perform as well as his body will allow. With that in mind, the University of Cincinnati provides a team of professionals to ensure that the Bearcats that take the field every week are in peak physical condition.

"When I was in college, everyone thought that physical development was how much weight you could put on the bar," said head coach Brian Kelly. "But it really has to do with taking care of your body. In today's game, nutrition, health, and wellness are the things that give teams the edge to be successful. When all the other teams learn how to weight train, what gives us the advantage?

"At UC we work at training the body and that begins with our football strength coach and athletic trainer working together. Their ability to work as one is a uniqueness we have. Often there is a dichotomy of interests between the strength coach and the trainer, but they have worked together with the coaching staff to develop the same philosophy of physical development."

Cincinnati's strength and conditioning coach is Paul Longo, a veteran of more than 20 years in the field with experience at the University of Iowa and the University of Wisconsin. Bob Mangine is the team's athletic trainer who has over 30 years experience in the sports medicine field.

"Along the way you are going to have setbacks, a knee or shoulder problem," Kelly said. "But, do you have a training program that can get you through that bump in the road? It's not uncommon for a player at another school to get injured his freshman year and never grow any further. We believe we have the best in strength and conditioning and athletic training to prevent that from happening, and we realize that every player has to be trained in a different manner."

DEVELOPING THE COMPLETE PLAYER

"When I went to college, I was 215 pounds and played tight end. Since working with Coach Longo, I put on almost 80 pounds but didn't lose any of my speed. I may be an offensive lineman, but I can still run like I was a tight end. The training is specific for each position, so what we do will carry over onto the field."
— Joe Staley, 2007 NFL First-Round Draft Pick

"Over the past four years working with Coach Kelly, we've seen constant improvement in the bigger, faster, stronger numbers of our athletes. A lot of the credit goes to the work ethic and commitment within the program. The improvement in those areas has been tremendous."
— Paul Longo, Strength and Conditioning Coach

"Along the way you are going to have setbacks, a knee or shoulder problem. Do you have that training program that can get you through that bump in the road? We believe we have the best in strength and conditioning and athletic training to get anyone back on the field in excellent physical condition."
— Brian Kelly, Head Coach

SKILL DEVELOPMENT

The University of Cincinnati coaching staff has a track record of excellence in evaluating and developing talent. Student-athletes who choose UC know they will be receiving expert instruction from some of the brightest and most innovative minds in college football. Each member of the staff recognizes his role not only as a football coach, but as a teacher and role model as well.

"If we are going to develop your skill, we've got to be able to teach," said head coach Brian Kelly. "I put together a great staff of communicators who are also excellent teachers. I know that I was able to reach my potential because I had great mentors, teachers, and communicators surrounding me throughout my career."

The coaching staff consists of eight individuals who played collegiately, including Mike Elston, a three-year letterwinner at the University of Michigan. This experience allows the staff to build stronger relationships with the student-athletes with whom they work. UC's coaching staff is familiar with success at the national level. Jeff Quinn and Greg Forest were a part of Kelly's staff that led Grand Valley State University to back-to-back Division II national titles, while no less than eight of the Bearcats' full-time coaches have either played or coached in a bowl game or NCAA postseason football tournament.

Over the past two seasons, Kelly and his staff have produced seven NFL Draft choices, including a school-record five selections in 2009.

DEVELOPING THE COMPLETE PLAYER

"I have 18 years of head coaching experience and a pair of national championships and that is unique in Division I-A – only seven other coaches have done it. I've proven I know how to run a program and create the right culture for young men to grow in. I'm a hands-on head coach. I'm not a head coach that is out at practice just walking around ... I've got the pulse of the team."
— Brian Kelly, Head Coach

"I had people coaching me that gave me an opportunity to display my talents and develop my skill. Even after I was done playing in college, they helped me set up for my pro workouts and gave recommendations to coaches and scouts. Whatever you need, be it academic or athletic, the coaches are looking out for you."
— Haruki Nakamura, former UC defensive back and 2008 NFL Draft Pick

"Looking back on it, with what happened to me here I never would've wanted to go anywhere else in the country. I'm so blessed and happy that I ended up in Cincinnati and the way everything has worked out."
— Connor Barwin, former UC defensive end and 2009 NFL Draft Pick

UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI

The University of Cincinnati traces its origins to 1819, the year in which Cincinnati College and the Medical College of Ohio were chartered. In 1870, the City of Cincinnati established the University of Cincinnati, which later absorbed the earlier institutions. In 1906, the University of Cincinnati created the first cooperative education program in the United States through its College of Engineering. For many years, the University was the second-oldest and second-largest municipal university in the country. In 1968, UC became a "municipally sponsored, state affiliated" institution, entering a transitional period culminating on July 1, 1977 when UC became one of Ohio's state universities. The University of Cincinnati is classified as a Research Extensive University by the Carnegie Commission, and is ranked as one of America's Top 25 public research universities.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

At the University of Cincinnati, excellence is a hallmark of the academic programs. U.S. News and World Report ranks 12 UC programs among the Top 10 in the country, while another 26 programs are listed among the Top 50 in the nation.

Money Magazine's Elite Values in Higher Education, Kaplan's Unofficial, Unbiased Insider's Guide to the 320 Most Interesting Colleges, Octameron's College Match: A Blueprint for Choosing the Best School for You and Yahoo's Internet Life have all ranked the University of Cincinnati's programs among the best in the nation.

Undergraduate students in any college may apply to the University Honors Scholars Program. If selected as an Honors student, the rewards for being an outstanding student include smaller classes, honors housing, special advising, and scholarships worth up to $60,000 over four years.

UC's cornerstone scholarship program is Cincinnatus, which awards more than 1,400 scholarships totaling over $11 million.

CINCINNATI FIRSTS

UC has been the source of many contributions to society, including:
- the first electric organ
- the first oral polio vaccine
- the first observations of the National Weather Service
- the first safe anti-knock gasoline
- the first antihistamine
- the first use of lasers to remove brain tumors
- the first bachelor's degree program in nursing and first emergency medicine residency program
- the first degree program offered via satellite

CINCINNATI SPORTS FIRSTS

- Cincinnati hosted one of the first night football games in the United States in 1923.
- George Smith, captain of the 1934 football team, wore a device to protect a facial injury, a fore-runner of the facemask.
- In 1961, Hank Hartong became college football's first soccer-style kicker.
- UC was the first school to make five consecutive appearances in the men's basketball Final Four, 1959-63.

ALL-AMERICAN CITY

The City of Cincinnati provides the perfect complement to the UC educational experience.

Cincinnati and the surrounding area provides recreational and leisure time activities to meet about every interest — from rock climbing, canoeing, and camping for outdoor enthusiasts to theatre and arts for the culturally inclined.

Cincinnati is truly a major league city. Fans flock to the waterfront to attend games and events at a pair of new venues — the Bengals' Paul Brown Stadium, opened in 2001, and the Reds' Great American Ballpark, opened in 2003.

The variety of museums and galleries, fine dining, festivals and events, attractions and sports, parks, recreation facilities, and shopping are the reasons millions visit the Queen City year after year.

Kings Island theme park and the world-renowned Cincinnati Zoo are just two major attractions that are on the list of "must see" items on any trip to Greater Cincinnati.

Numerous concert facilities attract big-name entertainers and acts to the Cincinnati area. The Ohio River offers a variety of scenic views and entertainment options.

Five-star dining, revolving circular restaurants, and riverboat dining are just a few of the succulent options that Cincinnati offers. Its visitors find themselves coming back for classic "Cincinnati-style" chili, tasty barbecue ribs, and local homemade ice cream.

Annual surveys of the area's quality of life resulted in Cincinnati being listed as the most livable city in North America.

Cincinnati and the tri-state area are the corporate headquarters of 10 Fortune 500 companies. Major corporations, such as Proctor and Gamble, Chiquita Brands, and Kroger, make Cincinnati their home while carrying the city's trademark to worldwide marketplaces.

The corporate community has strong ties to UC and provide a wealth of employment opportunities.

Cincinnati is one of America's truly spectacular cities. Its character provides a prime place to enjoy all the best in life. It is a great place to visit, an even better place to live and learn.
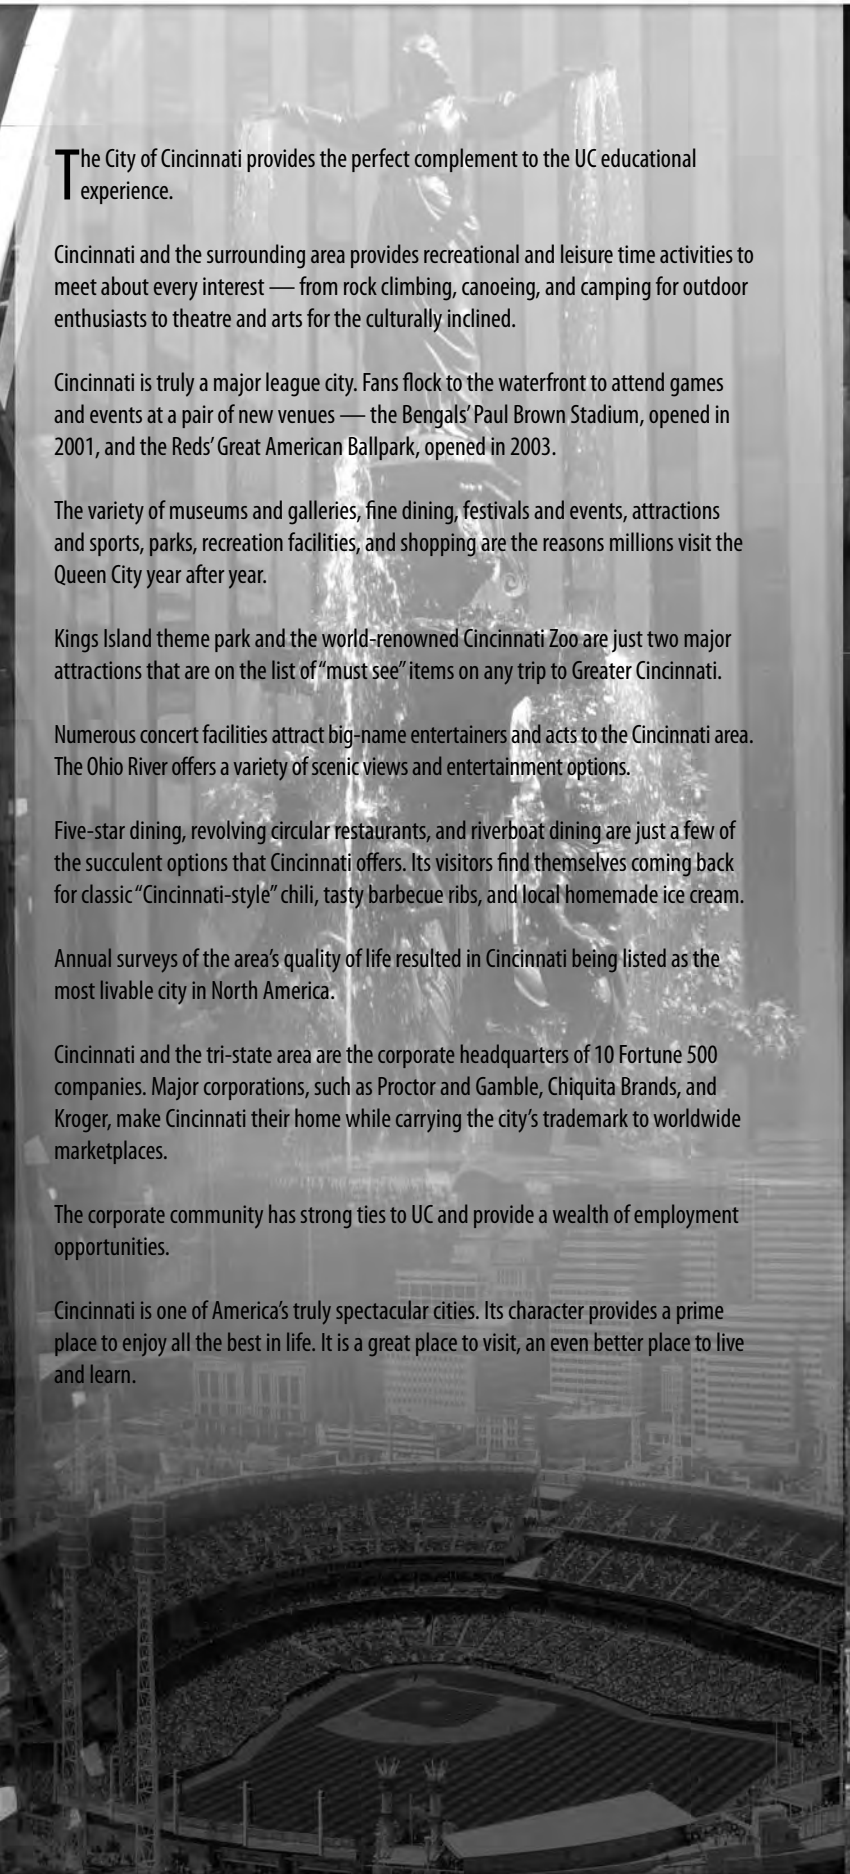

CINCINNATI at a Glance

Cincinnati is ranked in the Top 10 by Fortune Magazines as a great place to live and work due to its variety of cultural, recreational, entertainment and sports activities, its excellent and affordable housing and its low crime rate.

Esquire Magazine ranked Cincinnati No. 7 on its list of "Cities that Rock."

Cincinnati's Fine Arts Fund, the oldest in the nation, ranks among the top three in the U.S. for total dollars raised by a united arts campaign.

Over 100 museums and galleries are located in the Greater Cincinnati area.

Cincinnati's over 20,000 acres of city and county parks give it one of the largest park systems (per capita) of major U.S. cities.

Cincinnati's list of festivals and events include Oktoberfest-Zinzinnati (the world's second-largest next to the original in Munich), the internationally famous Tall Stacks reunion of historic riverboats, the Cincinnati Flower Show, Riverfest, Kidsfest, A Taste of Cincinnati, and the Black Family Reunion.

The Cincinnati Public Library along with the Hamilton County Library combine for the third largest total circulation on the U.S
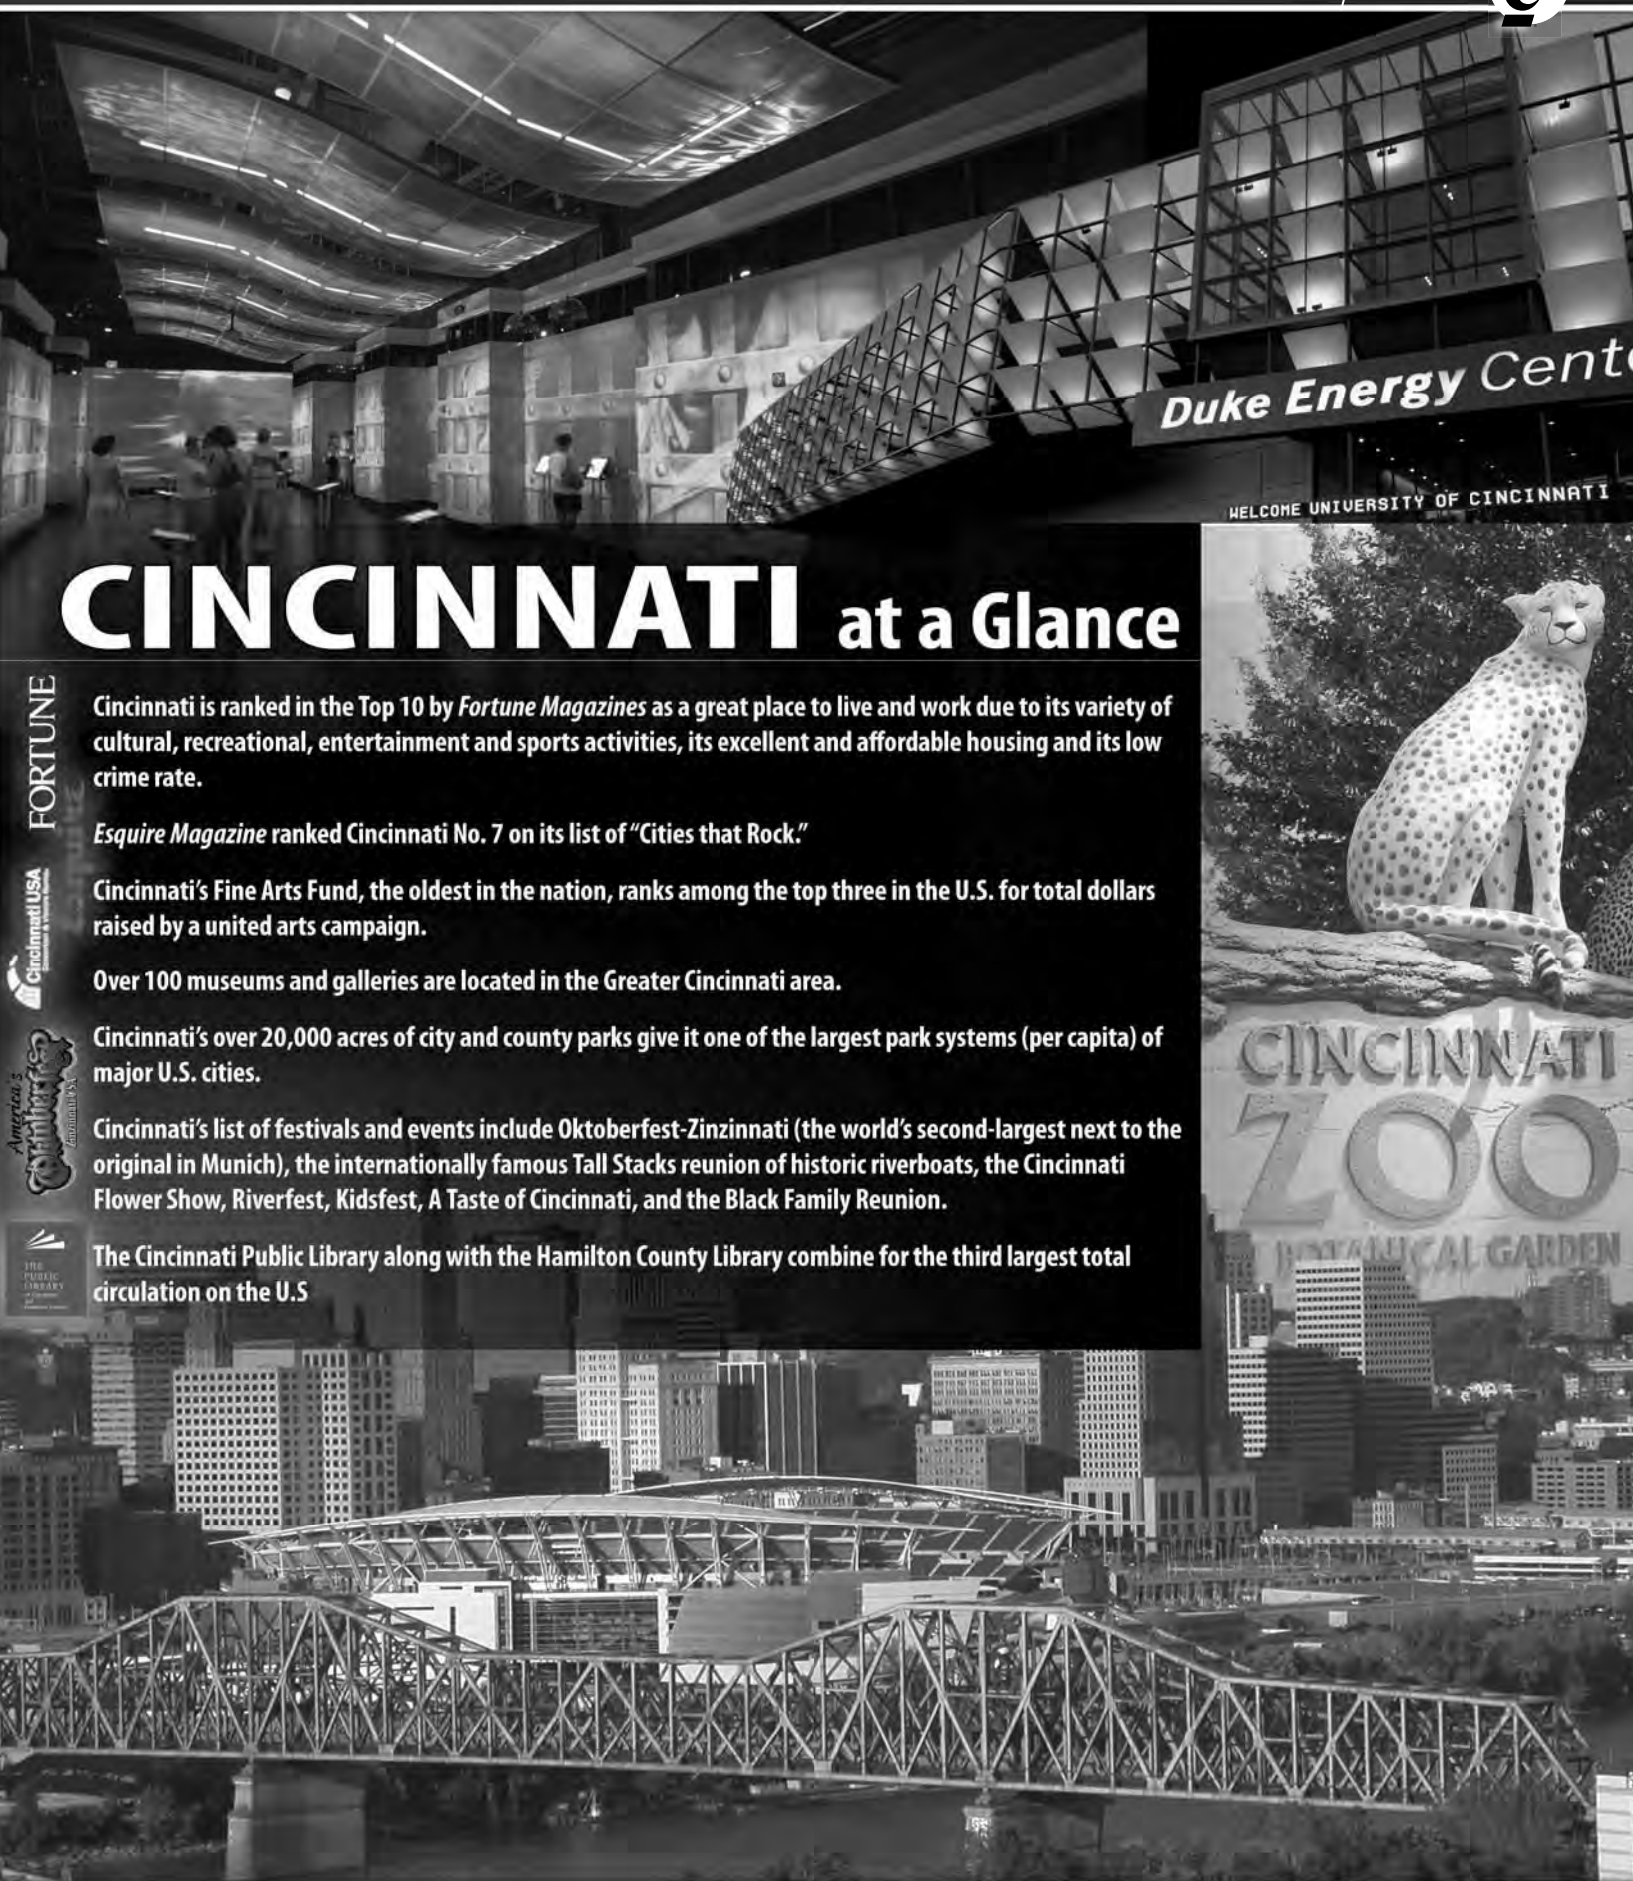

UC'S CATAPULT

BIG EAST Championships in every sport within the next five years, continued leadership by UC student-athletes in academics, and community engagement are the main goals of CATAPULT, an action plan for University of Cincinnati athletics unveiled by Director of Athletics Mike Thomas.

Thomas' five-year vision for UC's 18-sport intercollegiate program was launched six months into his tenure at UC. The plan focuses on three main initiatives: winning BIG EAST team championships, high-level academic achievement, and a comprehensive integration with the Greater Cincinnati Community.

"It is critically important for our student-athletes, past, present and future, along with our coaches, staff, alumni, and fans to know that we are 100 percent committed to being a championship program within the BIG EAST," said Thomas. "Setting specific goals will keep all of our stakeholders focused on where we need to go. The title of the program, CATAPULT, is truly symbolic of what our department is poised to do over the next five years, which is to leap over the rest of the BIG EAST, and go all the way to the top."

The basic components of CATAPULT are:

CHAMPIONSHIPS: UC will win a BIG EAST championship in every sport within the next five years. The Bearcats picked up their first BIG EAST championship in 2006 as the men's soccer team captured the regular-season title. in 2008, the football team won the BIG EAST Championship and the volleyball squad earned a share of the regular season league title.

ACADEMICS: UC student-athletes will set the pace academically by continuing to lead the general student body in graduation rates and over a five-year period outperform the general student body in grade point average. UC student-athletes are graduating at a 61 percent rate, which exceeds the 50 percent rate of school's general student body and is on par with the national student-athlete rate of 63 percent. In the most recent compilation of the grade-point averages, UC student-athletes posted an accumulated grade point average of 3.03 while the overall GPA of the UC student body was 2.969.

TOGETHER: UC student-athletes, coaches, and staff will respect and honor the privilege of competing as Cincinnati Bearcats. All participants recognize that UC's goals cannot be achieved without engaging the UC family and the Cincinnati community.

MEDIA EXPOSURE

TELEVISION PARTNERS

As a member of the BIG EAST Conference, the University of Cincinnati football program enjoys extensive media exposure.

The BIG EAST's television agreements with ABC and ESPN virtually guarantee that at least one league game will be televised nationally each weekend and that every conference and home non-conference game will be carried on the ESPN family of networks.

ESPN Regional Television (ERT) produces a BIG EAST Game of the Week syndicated package that is distributed regionally to the local markets of the member schools as well as to cable and subscription services.

Eight of UC's 2009 games have been pre-selected for television, including six national-television appearances across the ESPN and FOX Sports networks.

RADIO PARTNERS

UC football games can be heard in 38 states via the 50,000-watt signal of 700 WLW. The Clear Channel Communications station broadcasts every UC football game and hosts a weekly telephone call-in show featuring head coach Brian Kelly at 8 p.m. throughout the season live from the Montgomery Inn.

THE BCS IS...

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) is a five-game arrangement for post-season college football that is designed to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship game and to create exciting and competitive matchups between eight other highly regarded teams in four other games.

The bowl games participating are the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl, Rose Bowl, Allstate Sugar Bowl and the BCS National Championship Game, which will be played each year at one of the bowl sites.

The BCS is managed by the commissioners of the 11 NCAA Division I-A conferences, the director of athletics at the University of Notre Dame, and representatives of the bowl organizations. The conferences are Atlantic Coast, BIG EAST, Big Ten, Big 12, Conference USA, Mid-American, Mountain West, Sun Belt, Pacific 10, Southeastern and Western Athletic.

UC played in the 2009 FedEx Orange Bowl, the Bearcats' first appearance in a BCS game.

NEXT MAN IN

Kelly stresses that when one player goes down, his replacement steps right in and the team doesn't miss a beat. No matter where a player sits on the depth chart, he has to be ready to compete.

"It is something we talk about every day, being the Next Man In," Kelly said. "It takes consistency and a belief in everyone on our team. From the first guy to the 105th, you never know what is going to happen and when you will get your chance to contribute."

The philosophy was proven first hand in 2008 as UC used a total of five quarterbacks through the season: Dustin Grutza, Tony Pike, Chazz Anderson, Zach Collaros, and Demetrius Jones. The Bearcats won the 2008 BIG EAST Championship, earning a spot in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl in Miami on Jan. 1, 2009.

Connor Barwin spent the first three years of his UC career as a tight end before switching to defensive end as a senior, winning first-team all-BIG EAST accolades in the process. Barwin, who also caught a touchdown pass against USF as a tight end, ended up as the No. 46 selection in the 2009 NFL Draft and now plays for the Houston Texans.

UC FOOTBALL HISTORY

The University of Cincinnati's rich history and tradition in intercollegiate athletics is founded in the Bearcats' football program. The football tradition has grown over the years and reached new heights under third-year head coach Brian Kelly. In 2008, UC set a school record with 11 wins, won the Bearcats' first outright football conference championship since 1946, finished the season ranked No. 17 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Top 25 polls, and played in the 2009 FedEx Orange Bowl.

UC's football program is one of the nation's oldest—only Rutgers (1869), Michigan (1879), Navy (1880) and Minnesota (1883), among NCAA Division I institutions, predate Cincinnati, which began the sport in 1885.

UC has been involved in several historical college football milestones starting with Dec. 8, 1888. That day, the Bearcats and Miami University (OH) engaged in the very first college football game played in the state of Ohio, launching a rivalry that is tied for the oldest in the game among major universities — North Carolina vs. Wake Forest began playing that same year. The Battle for the Victory Bell is the fifth-most played rivalry series in college football.

A few years later in 1897, UC received an invitation to visit New Orleans to play a football game as a reward for a successful season. The game was a precursor to the current postseason football bowl games.

In the 1930s, a UC football player wore a device with his helmet to protect his broken nose. The device was a forerunner of the now standard face mask. The first soccer-style place kick was also attempted by a Bearcat, Hank Hartong, in the early 1960s.

Coaching luminaries have patrolled the sidelines at Cincinnati. College Football Hall of Fame coach Frank Cavanaugh began his 24-season career at UC.

Sid Gillman, a member of the College and NFL Halls of Fame, was the architect of one of the top eras of Cincinnati football history. He directed the Bearcats to three conference titles and a pair of bowl game appearances during his six seasons (1949-54) before leaving for the professional ranks. Cincinnati, with Gillman developing the passing offenses which would make him successful in the pro ranks, became known for its aerial attack in the early 1950's. That notoriety continued long after his departure.

In 1968, the Bearcats were the nation's top passing team with quarterback Greg Cook leading the NCAA in total offense while receiver/kicker Jim O'Brien captured the national scoring title. A year later, Cook earned Rookie of the Year honors as a Cincinnati Bengal, and two years later, O'Brien kicked the game-winning field goal for the Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl V.

With over 100 players advancing into the professional ranks, 34 earning all-America honors and 11 garnering academic all-America recognition, Cincinnati football has clearly made an important impact on college football with its long history of accomplishments.

OLD TIME Football

Only four NCAA Division I-A programs have been in existence longer than the University of Cincinnati.

UC FOOTBALL Timeline

1885 » UC fielded its first football team under the organization of Arch Carson, who served as the first coach. The team won a pair of games over a club from neighboring Mt. Auburn.

1888 » Cincinnati and Miami University (OH) faced off in Oxford for the first college football game in the state of Ohio. The game ended in a scoreless tie but launched a rivalry that is tied for the honors of being the oldest among major colleges.

1897 » Following a 7-1-1 season — the lone loss was to the fabled Carlisle Indians — Cincinnati was invited to celebrate New Years in New Orleans and play a contest against the host Southern Athletic Club. A day after their victory, the Bearcats accepted a challenge from LSU and also defeated the Tigers.

1898 » Frank Cavanaugh, immortalized as the Iron Major, began his head coaching career at Cincinnati. He was elected to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame at the conclusion of his illustrious career.

1912 » Cincinnati scored a school-record 124 points in a shutout win over Transylvania. Ike Stewart and Bob Heuck each tallied six TDs and Alonzo Wells kicked 12 PATs, all UC records.

1914 » Cincinnati teams first used the nickname Bearcats.

1922 » George McLauren, another UC mentor to be elected to the College Football Hall of Fame, began his four-season tenure as UC's head coach.

1933 » UC won the first of two straight Buckeye Athletic Association titles.

1935 » The Bearcats' first NFL players, Bill Feldhaus (Detroit) and Ray Nolting (Chicago), lead UC to a 7-2 record before embarking on their pro careers.

1942 » UC hosted No. 2, and eventual Rose Bowl winner Georgia at Nippert Stadium and lost, 35-13. The other blemish on UC's 8-2 record was to Sugar Bowl victor Tennessee.

1943-44 » Football suspended due to World War II.

1946 » UC defeated defending Big Ten Conference champion Indiana in the season opener en route to a 9-2 record. The season was capped by the Bearcats' first bowl appearance. UC defeated Virginia Tech, 18-6, in the Sun Bowl.

1947 » UC won its first Mid-American Conference championship. The Bearcats won four crowns in their six-year association with the league.

1950 » The Bearcats advanced to the Sun Bowl but were edged by West Texas State, 14-13.

1951 » UC posted an all-time best record of 10-1. Gene Rossi and Bob Stratton became the first Bearcats to earn all-America recognition.

1953 » Cincinnati led the nation in both total offense (409.5 yards per game) and total defense (184.3), a feat accomplished by only three other teams in college football history.

1954 » Sid Gillman left for the Los Angeles Rams after directing UC to an 8-2 ledger. In six seasons under the eventual college and pro hall of fame coach, the Bearcats posted a 50-13-1 record and won three Mid-American Conference titles.

1959 » Dave Canary became the first of 11 Bearcats to earn academic all-America honors. Canary eschewed pro football possibilities to pursue a successful acting career and became a regular in several TV series. Teammates Jack Lee and Jim Leo were named MVP of the Senior Bowl and College All-Star games, respectively.

UC FOOTBALL HISTORY

BOWL-CATS

Cincinnati has been to seven bowl games over the last nine seasons and 11 in the program's 121 seasons. UC played in the first Bowl Championship Series game in school history, taking on Virginia Tech in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl on Jan. 1, 2009.

ALL-AMERICA TRADITION

Thirty-nine Bearcats have earned all-America recognition. Mike Woods garnered first-team honors in 1977, earning him an appearance on Bob Hope's television special. Punter Kevin Huber became the first two-time First-Team Associated Press all-American in UC history when he earned the honor in 2007 and 2008.

"THE TOE"

Jonathan Ruffin received the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker in 2000 after booting a record 26 field goals. He was presented the award by ESPN's Chris Fowler. Ruffin was also a consensus all-American that year.

TROPHY GAMES

Cincinnati's annual clash with the Miami RedHawks is the nation's eighth-oldest and 11th-longest running rivalry in NCAA Division I-A. The winner of the yearly fall battle claims the Victory Bell. The Bearcats are involved in a total of three trophy games. The winner of the UC-Louisville contest takes home the Keg of Nails, while the winner of the UC-Pittsburgh game stakes claim to the recently created River City Rivalry Trophy. UC currently holds all three trophies.

UPSET CATS

UC football has been dangerous to top teams over the years, knocking off the likes of No. 8 Wisconsin, 17-12, at home in 1999, going to defending national champion Penn State in 1983 and upending the Nittany Lions, 14-3, and dominating Virginia Tech, 16-0, in 1995 while allowing just 41 yards of offense. However, possibly the biggest upset in UC history came in 2006 as the Bearcats beat its highest-ranked opponent in Nippert Stadium history, blowing away then-No. 7 Rutgers, 30-11.

CHAMPIONSHIP FOOTBALL

With a 22-6 record since arriving in late 2007, head coach Brian Kelly had made the Bearcats relevant on the national stage once again. In 2008, UC claimed the BIG EAST title, the school's first outright conference crown since 1946. The Bearcats climbed as high as No. 12 in the Associated Press, and USA Today Top 25 polls on the way to a school-record 11 wins. Kelly, who has won two straight BIG EAST Coach of the Year Awards, has mentored 18 all-conference performers, eight all-Americans, and eight NFL Draft selections. The Bearcats have played in three straight bowl games for only the second time in school history.

UC FOOTBALL Timeline

1963-64 » UC won back-to-back Missouri Valley Conference titles under Chuck Studley, who went on to become head coach of the Houston Oilers. UC compiled a 14-6 record during those two seasons.

1968 » Cincinnati led the nation in passing offense, averaging 335.8 yards per game. Quarterback Greg Cook led the nation in total offense, amassing 3,210 yards, while receiver/kicker Jim O'Brien was the nation's leading scorer with 142 points. O'Brien kicked the game-winning field goal in the closing seconds of Cincinnati's win over Miami (OH). O'Brien, who led the nation in scoring that year, went on to perform similar heroics in Super Bowl V. Holder Greg Cook, who led the nation in total offense that year, earned pro NFL Rookie of the Year in 1969.

1970 » Bob Bell became the second Bearcat in as many seasons to be a first-round selection in the NFL Draft.

1976 » Cincinnati defeated Arizona State and Vanderbilt en route to a 9-2 ledger. Co-captain Mike Woods earned first-team all-America honors and was a second-round draft pick by the Baltimore Colts.

1979 » Cincinnati entered the fourth quarter with a 21-7 lead over sixth-ranked Florida State, only to have the Seminoles rally for a 26-21 win at Nippert Stadium.

1983 » UC opened the season with a 14-3 upset of defending national champion Penn State at Beaver Stadium.

1992 » Nippert Stadium reopened to full use following an extensive renovation. The Bearcats hosted No. 8 Penn State in the season opener, and nearly pulled off the upset before falling, 24-20.

1995 » Robert Tate led the nation in kickoff returns, averaging 34.3 yards on 15 returns. Tate was named both Offensive and Special Teams MVP in Conference USA.

1996 » Cincinnati began football competition in Conference USA. The Bearcats posted back-to-back crowds of 30,729 for Kentucky and 30,887 for Miami (OH), breaking the old stadium attendance record.

1997 » UC ended a 47 season drought without a bowl game appearance when it was selected to play in the inaugural Humanitarian Bowl. The Bearcats defeated Utah State, 35-19, and finished the year 8-4.

1999 » Cincinnati upset No. 8 Wisconsin, 17-12 in Nippert Stadium.

2000 » UC won five of its last six games to finish second in Conference USA and earn a bid to play Marshall in the Motor City Bowl. Jonathan Ruffin became UC's first consensus first-team all-America choice and received the 2000 Lou Groza Award after leading the nation in field goals.

2001 » The Bearcats opened the season against No. 25 Purdue in front of the largest Nippert Stadium crowd in history. UC won its first four league games en route to a second-place finish in Conference USA and second straight trip to the Motor City Bowl. Quarterback Gino Guidugli is named the Conference USA Freshman of the Year after setting school and league freshman records by throwing for 2,573 yards and 16 touchdowns.

2002 » Cincinnati set school and Conference USA single-game attendance marks when 66,319 packed Paul Brown Stadium to see UC play eventual national champion Ohio State. UC won its final five league games to claim a share of the Conference USA title, its first league championship since 1964. Quarterback Gino Guidugli threw for 3,543 yards, one of five season records set by the sophomore. UC earned a bowl bid for a record third straight year, playing in the New Orleans Bowl.

2004 » The Bearcats recovered from a 2-4 start to win five of their last six games, including a convincing 52-24 victory over No. 21 Southern Miss. UC was selected for the Fort Worth Bowl where the Bearcats defeated Marshall, 32-14.

2005 » Cincinnati began play in the BIG EAST Conference.

2006 » The Bearcats posted a 7-5 regular-season mark, playing a schedule that featured five teams ranked in the Top 10 at the time they faced UC. After a couple of near misses against those ranked foes, UC downed No. 7 Rutgers, 30-11, before a national television audience. Cincinnati earned a berth in the inaugural International Bowl in Toronto, Ont. Though head coach Mark Dantonio and his staff departed following the end of the regular season, new coach Brian Kelly and his staff directed the UC squad to a 27-24 win over Western Michigan.

2007 » In Brian Kelly's first full season as head coach at UC, the program equaled the school single-season record for wins, posting a 10-3 record and earning a No. 17 ranking in the final Associated Press poll. It marked the first time UC ended the season among the nation's Top 25 programs. Three Bearcats earned all-America honors, including punter Kevin Huber, who was the school's second consensus selection.

2008 » The Bearcats had a banner season that included a school-record 11 wins, the program's first BIG EAST Conference Championship, a final ranking of No. 17 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Top 25 polls, and a Bowl Championship Series appearance in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl on Jan. 1, 2009. Five UC players earned all-America honors while punter Kevin Huber became the first two-time First Team Associated Press all-America selection in school history.

RING OF HONOR

During the 2006 season opener, the University of Cincinnati Department of Athletics unveiled its prestigious Ring of Honor. Located on the fascia between the upper and lower decks of the east side of Nippert opposite the press box, the Ring of Honor recognizes the accomplishments of UC's extraordinary student-athletes, similar to the ones which honor former pro football greats of the Dallas Cowboys and Denver Broncos. Honorees have to meet a strict set of criteria to be placed among the Ring of Honor. The criteria includes being named a National Player of the Year, an All-American, or having graduated from the University as its all-time leader in a major statistical category.

Following is the charter members.

NIPPERT STADIUM

Despite being one of the older stadiums in college football, Nippert Stadium has received several improvements over the years. The University began its latest renovation of the stadium in 1991 and in the last three years alone, has added new, permanent grandstands above the north endzone, new field level locker rooms for both the Bearcats and visiting team, and a new videoboard nearly twice as large as the previous display.

UC was one of the first stadiums to install FieldTurf back in 2000 and three years ago upgraded to the latest surface, giving UC players the best synthetic surface in the game. These latest enhancements preserve the rich history and tradition of Nippert Stadium while making it a contemporary place in which to play and watch a game.

The stadium's founder was Arch Carson, who as captain and principal organizer, played a significant role in starting football on the UC campus in 1885. In 1901 as physical director of the university, Carson guided the construction of the field which was later named for him; the playing surface is still called Carson Field.

In 1916, construction began on a permanent brick-and-concrete stadium structure, which was completed, section-by-section, as funds were raised.

During the season-ending clash with rival Miami University (OH) in 1923, Jimmy Nippert sustained a spike wound injury and died a month later from blood poisoning. His grandfather, James N. Gamble of Procter and Gamble, provided the funds needed to complete the horseshoe-shaped structure, and the James Gamble Nippert Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 8, 1924.

Nippert Stadium has undergone a series of expansions. In 1936, the playing field was lowered 12 feet to allow spectator seating to increase to 24,000. The Reed Shank Pavilion was added in 1954 to bring the capacity to 28,000. In 1991, the capacity was upped to 35,000 through extending the upper deck, now called the Herschede-Shank Pavilion, and a new press box was constructed.

Artificial turf was first installed in 1970 and in 2000, the stadium became one of the first in the U.S. to utilize FieldTurf, a grass-like synthetic surface.

Early-century brickwork combined with wrought iron gates and trim give Nippert a comfortable old-time stadium charm and appeal, while continuing renovations have enabled it to remain a classic showplace for college football.

NIPPERT STADIUM Facts

Home of UC football since 1902

Playing surface: FieldTurf

Fourth-oldest playing site for college football in the nation

Nation's fifth-oldest NCAA Bowl or Championship Division or stadium still in use, preceded by Harvard Stadium (1903), Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd/Grant Field (1914), the Yale Bowl (1914), and Cornell's Schoelkopf Stadium (1915).

NIPPERT STADIUM Timeline

1902 » Cincinnati played its first game on Carson Field. Wood bleachers were built on the surrounding hillside.

1909 » Lights were first used because the large number of co-op students on the team could practice only at night.

1916 » Funds to build a permanent brick and concrete structure were made available by a city bond issue.

1924 » The completed James Gamble Nippert Stadium was dedicated. The capacity at the time was 12,000.

1936 » Carson Field was lowered 12 feet to allow the capacity to expand to 24,000.

1989 » Nippert Stadium was closed for renovation. UC played its 1990 home games at Riverfront Stadium.

1991 » Phase I of the stadium renovation was completed to allow for UC home games to be played. The structure was fortified and a three-tiered press box was added.

1992 » Phase II of the renovation was completed, upping the seating capacity to 35,000 through the expansion of the Herschede-Shank Pavilion, and adding new lighting and a scoreboard.

1998 » UC overcame a 17-point fourth quarter deficit to defeat Houston, 44-43 for its 250th win in Nippert Stadium.

2000 » FieldTurf, a revolutionary new grass-like artificial surface, was installed. The press box was renamed the John and Dorothy Hermanies Press Box.

2001 » A new video scoreboard was added in the north endzone and 10,000 seats were upgraded. The season opener against Purdue produced the first advance sell-out in Nippert Stadium history.

2005 » A permanent grandstand upgraded seating behind the North endzone and provided new locker rooms at field level for game use. A new, larger video board was installed and the FieldTurf playing surface replaced.

2007 » Highlighted by three record-tying sellout crowds of 35,097, Cincinnati established a new single-season attendance record of 181,477 — an average of 30,246 fans per game.

2008 » Cincinnati established a single-season attendance record of 191,788, an average of 31,965 fans, for six home games at Nippert Stadium, including a sellout against Pittsburgh. Including the 2008 campaign, Nippert Stadium has enjoyed a total of 17 sellouts in its lengthy history.

FOOTBALL FACILITIES

When the University of Cincinnati Department of Athletics opened the Richard E. Lindner Center in May of 2006, it provided each team with new state-of-the-art facilities, including new coaching segment rooms, a new team meeting room, an expansive locker room, and offices for the football program. These facilities give UC coaches and student-athletes all of the necessary tools needed to compete for BIG EAST and national championships.

JACK LEE LOCKER ROOM

On April 21, 2007, the University of Cincinnati dedicated the Jack Lee Football Locker Room as a part of Lettermen's Weekend. Friends and former teammates witnessed UC Hall of Fame quarterback Jack Lee cut the ribbon to open the doors to the locker room. A locker holds a replica of Lee's Number 16 jersey and equipment from his time as a Bearcat.

BOB GOIN MEETING ROOM

The Bob Goin Meeting Room is a multipurpose room that serves as the hub of the football program's operations. Loaded with technology, it is large enough to accommodate the entire team and staff. The area has proved to be a valuable asset for the Bearcats.

FIELD-LEVEL LOCKER ROOM

As the countdown to kickoff approaches, the Bearcats move to their auxiliary locker room. Used exclusively on game day, the Bearcats exit two sets of double doors and charge through the tunnel to take the field.

JEFFERSON AVENUE SPORTS COMPLEX

The Jefferson Avenue Sports complex will include two fields, one 100 yards in length and the other 70 yards. The fields will provide the football team with some much needed additional practice space, and will also benefit all UC athletic teams.

The 100-yard field will transform into an indoor practice facility from November to late February thanks to an air-supported structure or "bubble" that will be inflated over the field. When inflated, the structure will give the department of athletics an additional 72,200 square-feet of space for practice. The bubble will maintain an interior ambient temperature between 50-60 degrees in the cold Cincinnati winter.

The goal of the new Jefferson Avenue Sports Complex is to provide our student-athletes with the resources they need to not only compete, but challenge for conference and national championships.

This state-of-the-art "athletics classroom" will also play a vital role in recruiting as it allows our coaches to continue to recruit the nation's best and brightest for years to come.

RICHARD E. LINDNER VARSITY VILLAGE

The future arrived for the University of Cincinnati athletics program in May, 2006 with the completion of the Richard E. Lindner Varsity Village.

The extensive renovation and upgrade of all of UC's athletics facilities, and the construction of some new venues, positions the Bearcats' sports programs to compete among the nation's best.

The term "village" aptly applies because the close proximal location and interconnection of the facilities provides ease of use and access to services for all of the sports teams and their student-athletes, similar to that of a small town.

There was nothing small about the vision for Varsity Village, a $105 million project, over half of which was privately financed.

The centerpiece of the project was the construction of the Richard E. Lindner Center. Its purpose is to serve as the home for all of the sports programs as well as the centralized support services.

Located between Nippert Stadium and Fifth Third Arena, the Lindner Center is a futuristic eight-story structure which houses offices, locker rooms, and reception and meeting space for each of the sport programs. The administrative services and support areas are also housed in the building.

The emphasis of the Lindner Center programming is on the student-athlete. One entire floor of the building is devoted to the Nancy Hamant Academics Center, which contains study facilities for UC's 560 student-athletes, including over 80 computer stations.

A new athletics training center, equipped with state-of-the-art diagnostic and treatment equipment, including three hydrotherapy pools, is included in the Lindner Center. The University Health Services for students has been relocated to the Lindner Center and provides expanded medical coverage conveniently located for UC student-athletes. An MRI diagnostic center is also part of the building, making UC the first school in the country to have one in its athletics facilities.

Space for strength and conditioning training in the adjacent Fifth Third Arena has been doubled to 18,000 square feet and has been furnished with the latest in weight training equipment. A new 12,000-square foot practice gymnasium will ease the scheduling of workouts and practices.

While the Lindner Center provides for the present and future of UC athletics, it also recognizes and celebrates UC's proud past. The ground level of the five-story atrium features the George and Helen Smith Museum detailing the history of both the athletics program and the University. Sports histories are portrayed in graphic murals and on video screens. A five-story trophy case, making it one of the world's largest, houses the Bearcat's championship memorabilia.

Varsity Village created three new sports venues and made significant upgrades and enhancements to two others.

The new baseball stadium, named for late Cincinnati Reds owner and area philanthropist Marge Schott, opened late in the 2004 season. UC's tennis program benefits from a new on-campus tennis center. The swimming and diving teams have a new training and competition home, the Keating Aquatics Center, in the nearby new student recreation center.

UC's track and soccer complex was totally renovated and permanent seating for 1,400 was added, along with a press box, and reopened as the Ben and Dee Gettler Stadium.

Nippert Stadium, which has been the home to UC football and the activities of just about every other outdoor sport since 1902, has undergone significant improvements in seating and other accoutrements for the spectators, such as expanded concourses and concessions areas, and a new video board. Teams benefit from field-level game day locker rooms and a grass-like FieldTurf artificial playing surface.

Landscaping has created a major walkway, O'Varsity Way, that leads visitors through the heart of Varsity Village. The Raymond D. Sheakley Lawn and Victory Plaza provide gathering and activities space for UC fans attending events.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Strength and conditioning is one of the most important ingredients of any successful college football program. To help the Bearcats' student-athletes maximize their athletic potential, UC combines a modern, comprehensive facility with the latest techniques in strength training.

No area of the football program is given greater attention and emphasis than strength and conditioning.

With the opening of the Richard E. Lindner Athletics Center, the Bearcats utilize an 18,000-square foot strength training facility. The new center includes over $1 million in Hammer Strength equipment and a five-lane running track.

The mirror-covered room is trimmed in red and black and features a tuflex floor made especially for weight training facilities. The modernized weight facility is highlighted by a quadraphonic sound system.

Paul Longo is the Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach. Recognized as one of the leaders in the profession, Longo has a proven record of success developing student-athletes and helping them achieve their full potential.

Longo has produced eight NFL Draft picks during his tenure at UC, including a school-record six picks in 2009. Connor Barwin (second), Kevin Huber (fifth), DeAngelo Smith (fifth), Brandon Underwood (sixth), Mike Mickens (seventh), and Trevor Canfield (seventh) were part of the 2009 draft class while Haruki Nakamura (sixth), and Angelo Craig (seventh) were selected in 2008.

Strength and conditioning is on-going. Programs are tailored to enable athletes to maintain strength during the peak physical demands of a playing season and increase strength through more extensive training during the off-season.

ACADEMIC SERVICES

Cincinnati received 2008 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Academic Achievement honorable mention accolades for its graduation success rate of over 90 percent for the entering class of 2001. UC was one of seven programs nationally to achieve over the 90 percent plateau. The Bearcats also ranked fourth in Higher Ed Watch's 2008 Academic BCS Rankings.

The Academic Services Office works with coaches, faculty and administrators to help make the student-athlete's academic and athletic experience as enriching and rewarding as possible. The office helps student-athletes keep abreast of the eligibility requirements of their particular colleges, assists with the coordination of class schedules, and monitors their progress in their respective programs and toward graduation.

Weekly meetings with academic advisors are set up for student-athletes to better monitor their academic progress and assist with adjustment to college. Tutoring and educational assistance are also readily accessible.

SERVICES PROVIDED FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES

Academic Advising: The UC Academic Services staff provides information regarding policies, procedures, course selection, selection of major and minor areas of study as well as NCAA and university guidelines for adequate academic progress.

Priority Registration: Student-athletes meet with an advisor in their college in order to obtain a check sheet and a graduation plan. The student-athlete then meets with an athletic academic advisor during priority registration in order to register for the quarter. Priority registration allows student-athletes to register for classes around practice and competition schedules.

Counseling: Individual work is done with student-athletes with specific concerns such as decision-making, adjustment to college, communications, relationships, test-anxiety and necessary study skills. Appropriate referrals are made to other campus resources.

Monitoring Academic Progress: Progress reports are used to gather classroom performance information from professors. This information is shared with the student-athlete and his/her coach so everyone can keep abreast of the current academic progress.

Tutorials: Services are provided for one-on-one and small group tutoring. Student-athletes may submit requests for a tutor assignment in most courses.

Career Development and Placement: The interests and strengths of each student-athlete are continually measured to prepare the student-athlete for a career beyond college. In addition to aiding career exploration and placement, this program provides assistance in securing summer employment opportunities and internships opportunities and post-graduate scholarships.

NANCY HAMANT ACADEMIC CENTER

The opening of the Richard E. Lindner Athletic Center pays huge dividends for student-athletes in terms of academics as the building houses the spacious Nancy Hamant Academic Center on the entire fifth floor.

The center, named in honor of the longtime faculty athletics representative, The Hamant Academics Center gives student-athletes a variety of ways to fulfill their study needs. The large study room is furnished to accommodate a variety of study habits and features 71 computer stations, a 50-person study room, five group meeting rooms and over 14 individual tutor rooms.
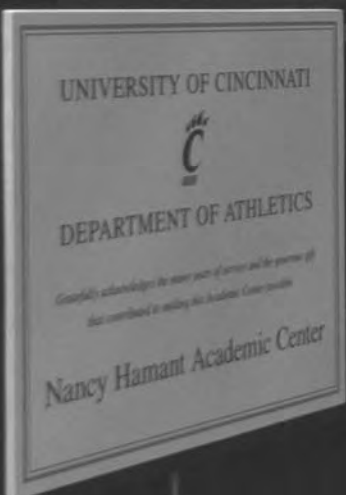

SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Cincinnati's sports medicine program is responsible not only for helping student-athletes make speedy recoveries from injuries, but in preventing injuries from occurring.

UC's sports medicine program is a comprehensive approach to the injury care and the wellness of the University's over 500 student-athletes, utilizing state-of-the-art diagnostic and treatment equipment with the latest methods in the care and prevention of injuries. Its objectives are simple: to prevent injuries, to rehabilitate injuries, to adjust to the stress following injuries and to educate student-athletes about various wellness issues. The goal is to get UC's athletes back in the classroom and on the playing field functioning at 100 percent capacity. The goal is attained in several ways. New student-athletes are carefully examined before they participate to detect potential problems. Student-athletes are afforded state-of-the-art therapeutic care.

The opening of the Richard E. Lindner Athletics Center in May 2006 provides a new, state-of-the-art sports medicine facility that caters to the needs of UC's student-athletes. Features of the facility include over 4,000 square feet of space for treatment and taping, spacious office suites for training staff and physicians, a physicians exam area, pharmacy, and x-ray facilities.

A highlight is the hydrotherapy facility which has a three-level, 5,000 gallon, two-treadmill exercise pool, and two 12-person whirlpools (one for hot and one for cold therapy). The sports medicine facility is located one floor below the new University Health Services Center, providing easy access to physicians and services. University Radiology has an MRI diagnostic center as part of the new complex.

Under the direction of Assistant Director of Athletics for Sports Medicine Jeff Carrico and football athletics trainer Bob Mangine, UC's athletics training staff is the backbone of the sports medicine program. Trainers are present at every practice and event to monitor the health of the student-athletes and respond to injuries.

Dr. W. Kenneth Stephens, a fellow in the American College of Sports Medicine and member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine, has served as the Bearcats' team physician for the past 30 years. UC's University Health Service provides a staff of medical professionals accessible to student-athletes 24 hours a day.

Dr. Angelo Colosimo and the staff of the University Orthopedics Associates of Cincinnati is on call to address orthopedic injuries, performing all orthopedic surgeries and supervising post-operation rehabilitation programs.

The UC Medical College provides nationally-recognized specialists who are immediately accessible. University Hospital, a nationally-recognized medical center, is immediately adjacent to the campus, providing UC student-athletes the absolute best in health and medical care.

GAMEDAY ON CAMPUS

The game day atmosphere at the University of Cincinnati is unique and unforgettable. From the band running down the stands to take their positions, to the team running through the tunnel to "Here come the 'Cats," a college football game day at UC is a memory-filled one for all ages. UC won all of its home games in 2008, the first time since 2000 that the Bearcats went undefeated in Nippert Stadium. Eight of the Top 12 crowds in Nippert history, including a stadium record of 35,098 against Pittsburgh in 2008, have occurred during the Brian Kelly era. With an average of 31,964 fans in six home games in 2008, UC established a single-season attendance record, topping the 2007 average of 30,246.

Starting two and a half hours before kickoff, the party begins with the BEARCATS FAMILY ZONE. Located on Sheakley Lawn adjacent to the Richard E. Lindner Center and Nippert Stadium, this area features inflatable games, face painting, and other acts to entertain the whole family.

Young children can get into the action at the FUTURE BEARCATS FIELD where they can try on uniforms and play on a miniature field just like the real Bearcats.

The UC cheer and dance teams accompany the marching band to the BEARCATS FAMILY ZONE one hour before the game for the official pregame pep rally.

Beginning in 2007, the football team began a new UC tradition beginning approximately 2 hours and 15 minutes prior to the game called the CAT WALK. Starting at the Marriott Kingsgate and moving through the Sigma Sigma Commons, Coach Kelly and the football team, along with the marching band and cheerleaders, make their way to Nippert Stadium. Find a spot along the way and "Cheer Cincinnati!"

CATS IN THE COMMUNITY
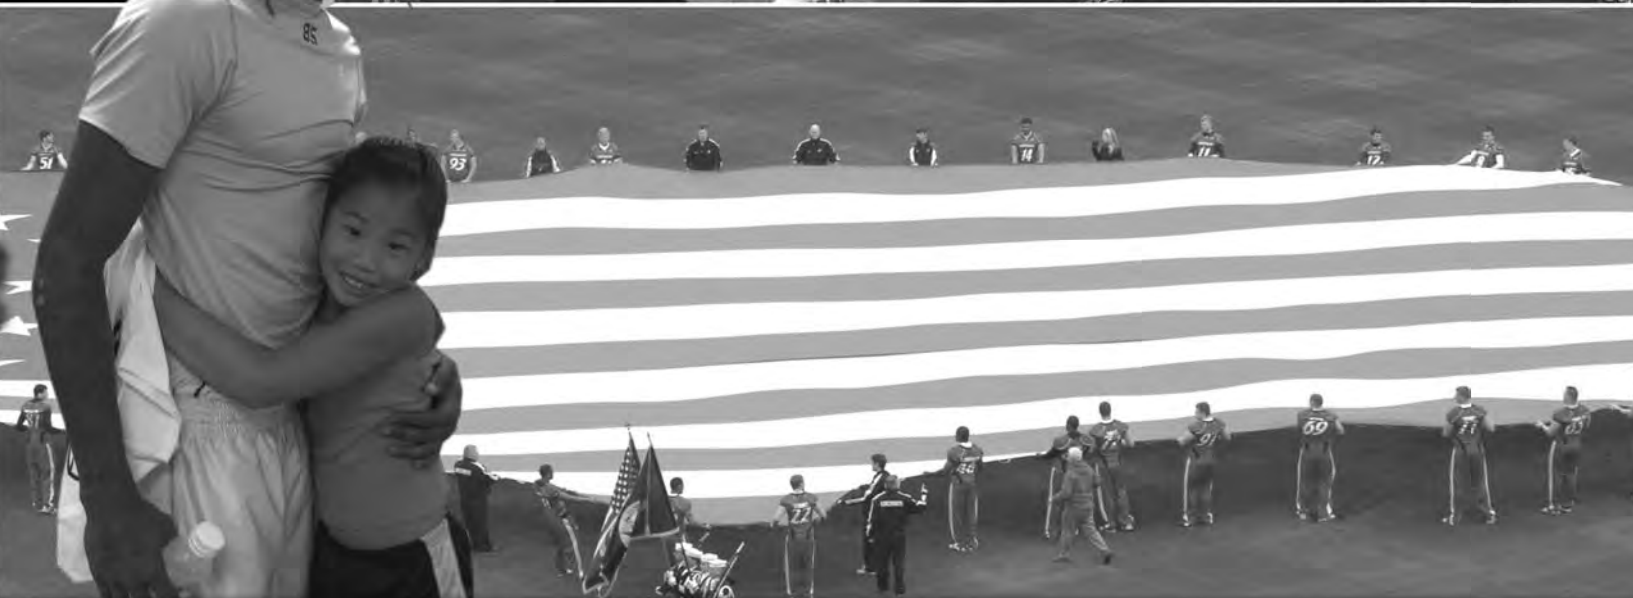

BEARCATS SPIRIT

DANCE TEAM

An important aspect of the excitement and pageantry of the University of Cincinnati is the UC Dance Team. Along with performing at all home football and basketball games, the team can be seen performing at several community events. Consisting of 36 members that make up both the Varsity and Junior Varsity teams, they average a GPA of a 3.2. This dedicated group of individuals provides more than just entertainment. Like all Bearcats athletics teams, the Dance Team has brought national recognition to the University.

In its 19th year of existence, the UC dance team has distinguished itself among that nation and world's elite. The Bearcats had a banner year in 2009, first winning its fourth national title in six years, and then winning the inaugural International Cheer Union's World Cheerleading Championship, competing as Team USA.

In 2009, the dance team won its fourth national title in the past six years, bringing home first place in Division IA Hip-Hop at the 2009 Universal Dance Association - College Cheerleading and Dance Team National Championship in Orlando, Fla. The dance team also finished fourth in the Division IA Dance competition. UC is the only Division IA team to place in the top four of both categories this year.

Three months later, the Bearcats were selected to represent the United States in the International Cheer Union's World Cheerleading Championship in Orlando, Fla., on Friday, April 24. The UC dance team pulled off a clean sweep, winning gold medals in the jazz, hip-hop, and freestyle competitions, besting teams from 40 countries. The international championship was the first of its kind for both competitive dance and cheerleading.

The team holds four National Championships, plus its three gold medals and World Championship titles from the 2009 season. The team won three consecutive National Titles in the Hip-Hop Category from 2004-06. The College Cheerleading and Dance Team National Championship will be televised over 50 times throughout the year on ESPN/ESPN2.

CHEERLEADERS

The UC cheerleaders have consistently proven themselves to be one of the elite squads in the nation. They have posted 11 Top 10 finishes at the College National Cheerleading Championships and have made 16 appearances in the finals.

Cincinnati has finished as high as second place in 2007, and has a third and a pair of fourth-place finishes as well. Between 1990 and 1997, the cheerleaders ran off a streak of eight straight Top-10 finishes.

UC cheerleaders have been selected to perform at international events. In 1994, they made a 10-day tour of Taiwan and performed in the opening ceremonies of the 1996 Olympics.

Tabby Fagan enters her 17th year as cheerleading coach. A 1993 Cincinnati graduate, Fagan was a member of the varsity cheerleading team for five years and cheered on three squads which advanced to the national finals.

BEARCATS MARCHING BANDS

The Bearcats Marching Band is known for its contemporary approach to both music and drill design. It has been a fixture at UC home football games and selected UC road contests for the past 84 years. Over 200 students are involved in the band as instrumentalists or as members of the Bearcats Guard, Twirlers and Drum Majors.

The Bearcats' varsity Band, a smaller pep-band unit, performs at all Cincinnati home basketball games and other selected events, providing the spark for the crowd in Fifth Third Arena.

Dr. Terren L. Frenz, who has compiled 44 years of success in music education and performance, is director of the bands. Nationally known as a conductor, lecturer, and marching drill writer, Frenz has directed previous bands or drum and bugle corps to five national championships.

LUCY THE BINTURONG

In April 2008, the University of Cincinnati and the Cincinnati Zoo and Botanical Gardens brought the Bearcat back to Cincinnati. The baby binturong was born January 17, 2008. In a public naming contest held by the Cincinnati Zoo, the young Bearcat was named Lucy.

Alice, the former Zoo bearcat, cheered for the University of Cincinnati from the mid-'80s to late '90s. Alice lived at the Cincinnati Zoo and was a regular attraction at UC's home football and basketball games for nearly 13 years. In her time at the Cincinnati Zoo, Alice was somewhat of a star herself. She met a number of celebrities including David Letterman, Johnny Carson, Prince Charles, and Newt Gingrich.

ADIDAS

Beginning in 2008, the University of Cincinnati and adidas entered into a multi-year agreement in which adidas will supply footwear and apparel for Bearcats football. The new agreement began with the 2008-09 academic year and extends through the 2011-12 season.

"At the University of Cincinnati our goal is to build a Top 20 football program and to do so you have to have world-class athletes and world-class facilities," said head football coach Brian Kelly, "and now we have another piece of the puzzle, adidas - a world-class provider of equipment and apparel. For adidas to make the commitment it has to our program, with equipment and additional resources, shows Cincinnati football is on the rise and will be a national championship contender for years to come."

With Cincinnati football now wearing the "three stripes", all 18 intercollegiate teams at the University of Cincinnati will be outfitted exclusively in adidas footwear, uniforms, training apparel, and accessories. Cincinnati joins a select group of universities that have similar agreements with adidas, including Notre Dame, UCLA, Tennessee, Indiana, Nebraska, Michigan, and Wisconsin among others. adidas also has marketing agreements with the NFL, MLS, and an 11-year exclusive all-league partnership with the NBA.

The line of Bearcats' adidas gear is available in stores, giving fans throughout Ohio and across the nation the chance to purchase a wide range of products. The UC product line includes sideline gear, coaches' polo shirts, hats, jerseys, performance apparel, and outerwear.

UC's uniforms, which include exclusive color schemes and numerals, were the result of two months of consultation with adidas, the football coaching staff , and the department of athletics.

The most noticeable addition to the uniforms will be the new "cat scratch" logo that was specially designed by the adidas design team in Portland, Ore. The four scratch marks coincide with UC's nationally-recognized "C-Paw" logo which features four claws atop the "C."

SEASON OUTLOOK

The Cincinnati football team put together a banner season in 2008 that included a school-record 11 wins, the program's first BIG EAST Conference Championship, a final ranking of No. 17 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Top-25 polls, and a Bowl Championship Series appearance in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl on Jan. 1, 2009.

Head coach Brian Kelly, the two-time defending BIG EAST Conference Coach of the Year, enters his third season at the helm of the program with a 22-6 record at UC and has the Bearcats' sights set on another BIG EAST Championship and a return to the BCS.

The pieces are in place for another championship run, as UC returns 43 letterwinners and 11 starters, including second-team all-BIG EAST selection Tony Pike at quarterback, stalwart offensive tackle Jeff Linkenbach, and safety Aaron Webster, who many preseason publications regard as the hardest-hitting defensive player in the league.

Adding to UC's nationally-recognized talent is wide receiver/kick returner Mardy Gilyard, who set school records with his receiving (1,276) and kickoff return (996) yardage totals from a year ago.

The 2009 season is not without its challenges, as UC has to replace key starters on both sides of the ball, including 10 on the defensive side. Kelly will also have to settle on a replacement for the first two-time first-team AP all-America selection in school history, punter Kevin Huber, who now works his craft at Paul Brown Stadium for the Cincinnati Bengals.

Kelly is quick to point out that while the faces may have changed, the mission remains the same; win the BIG EAST Championship and play in a BCS bowl game.

OFFENSE
The return of Pike gives Kelly a luxury he has not had in some time, a returning quarterback. For the first time in his UC tenure, the Bearcats head into the fall with someone firmly entrenched at the quarterback slot.

Pike burst onto the scene in 2008 after not appearing on UC's preseason depth chart. In 10 starts, the 6-6 signal caller from Cincinnati Reading High School was 199-for-324 (.610), good for 2,407 yards and 19 touchdowns, ranking third in the BIG EAST with a 136.4 passer efficiency rating.

Tony Pike

Mardy Gilyard

Pike missed two games, and parts of three others due to a broken arm, forcing UC to use a total of five quarterbacks last year. One thing that accomplished was to give sophomores Chazz Anderson and Zach Collaros some much needed experience.

Anderson, who enters fall camp as the backup, started the two games Pike missed; leading UC to a 2-0 record, posting a 33-10 road win at Marshall and a 13-10 home win over Rutgers. He also relieved Pike during the second half of the loss at Connecticut.

Collaros, who spent time with the UC baseball squad during the spring, played the part of reliever to perfection, coming in during crunch time in two games. He led UC on a drive to a game-winning field goal at Akron, and secured a game-clinching first down against USF.

UC has five running backs vying for playing time, with junior John Goebel and senior Jacob Ramsey at the top of the depth chart. Goebel, who started the final three games of the year, toted the ball 133 times for 607 yards, seven touchdowns, and a team-high average of 4.6 yards per carry. He also caught 26 balls out of the backfield, adding 283 yards.

Ramsey gained a team-high 664 yards on 152 carries with a pair of touchdowns, including an impressive 99-yard performance at Marshall.

Both backs were held back during the spring due to injury, allowing sophomore Isaiah Pead and redshirt freshman Darrin Williams to take most of the reps. Pead played in seven games, gaining 203 yards in 2008. In his debut at Marshall, Pead carried the ball on 11-straight plays, as UC ran out the clock, for a total of 69 yards. Williams did not see any game action in 2008, but had a strong spring and will battle for playing time in fall camp. Scott Johnson, who rushed for 79 yards against Eastern Kentucky, will also be in the mix.

Gilyard leads the wide receiving corps as a senior after hauling in a school-record 1,276 yard on 81 catches a year ago. He is one of most exciting returning receivers in the nation and will continue to stretch defenses with his talent.

SEASON OUTLOOK

D.J. Woods returns for his sophomore season, catching 14 balls for 168 yards while playing behind Marcus Barnett in 2008.

Armon Binns is penciled in as the starter at the other wide receiver spot. Binns saw limited time a year ago backing up stalwart Dominick Goodman, but after a solid spring, the promising talent looks to step into a starting role.

Charley Howard, Adrien Robinson, and Orion Woodard will all challenge for playing time in the rotation.

Kazeem Alli and Ben Guidugli will vie for playing time at tight end. Guidugli caught 18 passes for 229 yards and a touchdown in 2008, while Alli had 12 catches for 124 yards and three scores, including the game-winning touchdown in overtime at West Virginia.

C.J. Cobb and Alex Hoffman will look to hold down the starting spots on the right side with Frank Becker and Sam Griffin pressing them for playing time. Sean Hooey, Randy Martinez, and Evan Davis will all battle to be in the rotation.

Andre Revels

DEFENSE

The defense will feature a new look, a new coordinator, and 10 new starters in 2009. Many position battles are ongoing, making fall camp a competitive situation for the defense.

Bob Diaco joined the staff as the defensive coordinator in February from Virginia, and spent the spring installing UC's new multiple-front defense. With the loss of 10 seniors, the spring was a critical period for getting a look at different players on the defense.

The secondary is headlined by returning starter Aaron Webster at safety. The hard-hitting Webster entered the starting lineup against Marshall a year ago and did not relinquish his spot. Drew Frey looks to nail down the other safety spot after losing most of 2008 to injury. Quincy Quetant and Pat Lambert will serve as the understudies entering fall camp.

Senior Brad Jones will occupy one starting cornerback role, while Marcus Barnett, after an impressive spring, moves over from the offensive side of the ball to take the other spot. Dominique Battle, UC's 2008 Newcomer of the Year, and Camerron Cheatham will compete for playing time.

Seniors Andre Revels and Craig Carey lead the returners at linebacker. Revels missed most of the spring recovering from injury while Carey spent the spring learning a new position after playing at defensive end in 2008. They will be pushed for playing time by Marcus Waugh and Robby Armstrong.

Sophomore JK Schaffer holds down the other linebacker spot with Collin McCafferty on his heels. Another former quarterback, Demetrius Jones, has moved to linebacker and will look to get involved in the mix.

Derek Wolfe, Ricardo Matthews, John Hughes, and Curtis Young highlight the returners on the defensive line. All saw time a year ago and will look to continue the success UC has had in recent years attacking opposing quarterbacks.

Alex Daniels, Rob Trigg, Brandon Mills, and Walter Stewart will all look for time in the playing rotation.

Jeff Linkenbach

SPECIAL TEAMS

Senior Mike Windt and junior Jake Rogers lead the returners on special teams. Windt, a long snapper has been flawless the past two seasons. Rogers, a semi-finalist for the Lou Groza Award, was 16-for-23 on field goals and 34-of-36 on extra points in 2008.

The punting job is open for competition after the graduation of Kevin Huber. Rogers, Michael Cooke, and Danny Milligan all punted during the spring, and look for true freshman Patrick O'Donnell to get involved in the competition once camp begins. UC has led the NCAA in net punting for two straight years, only the fourth team in Football Bowl Subdivision history to do so.

Mardy Gilyard is one of the most explosive kick returners in the country, earning first-team all-BIG EAST honors at that spot a year ago. He returned two kickoffs for touchdowns in 2008 and ranked in the Top-10 nationally.

D.J. Woods enters camp as the primary punt returner after serving as a backup in 2008, averaging 9.4 yards per return. Marcus Barnett will also be competing for returns.

SCHEDULE

Seven of UC's 2009 opponents played in bowl games last season, including Connecticut (International Bowl), Fresno State (New Mexico Bowl), Oregon State (Brut Sun Bowl), Pittsburgh (Brut Sun Bowl), Rutgers (PapaJohns.com Bowl), USF (magicJack St. Petersburg Bowl), and West Virginia (Meineke Car Care Bowl).

For the first time in school history, UC opens up the season with a BIG EAST Conference road game on Monday, Sept. 7, when the Bearcats head to Piscataway, N.J., to take on the Rutgers Scarlet Knights. UC trails in the all-time series, 6-7-1, but has won the past three matchups between the two schools. It is the first time since 2005 that two BIG EAST schools will open up the season with a conference game.

HEAD COACH BRIAN KELLY
19TH SEASON OVERALL » THIRD AT CINCINNATI

N amed the University of Cincinnati's head football coach on Dec. 4, 2006, Brian Kelly has set the bar high at UC and achieved a great deal of success in a short period of time.

Entering his third year at the helm of the UC program, Kelly boasts a 22-6 record and led the Bearcats to their first BIG EAST Conference Championship in 2008.

Cincinnati achieved a school-record 11 victories in 2008, had back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time in school history, won the school's first outright conference championship since 1964, and earned the school's first berth in a Bowl Championship Series game, playing against Virginia Tech in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl.

UC achieved its highest-ever ranking to close the regular season as it was ranked at No. 12 in the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls, and the BCS standings entering the Orange Bowl. The Bearcats held down a postseason ranking of No. 17 in both polls, tying the top postseason ranking in school history.

UC finished the regular season on a six-game winning streak and captured all three of its rivalry trophies, the Victory Bell (Miami [OH]), Keg Of Nails (Louisville), and River City Rivalry (Pittsburgh) in the same season for the first time.

Kelly was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year for the second-straight season, and also was named the American Football Monthly Schutt Sports Football Bowl Subdivision Coach of the Year. He also earned American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Region 1 Coach of the Year honors, and was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year by Sporting News.

UC placed 10 student-athletes on all-BIG EAST teams, including first-team selection defensive end Connor Barwin, who was a tight end entering spring practice in 2008.

Kick returner Mardy Gilyard was named the BIG EAST Special Teams Player of the Year, the second-straight season a UC player has earned that award, and punter Kevin Huber earned the first AFCA All-America nod in program history. Huber was also the first two-time Associated Press First-Team All-America selection in UC football history.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT
BRIAN KELLY

"Brian Kelly is one of the most innovative and organized coaches I have been around, regardless of sport. His attention to detail regarding every element of our football program, and especially with regards to the total development of the young men in our program, is one of the many reasons why Cincinnati Football is among the hottest college football programs in the nation."

— Mike Thomas
University of Cincinnati

"Brian Kelly has done a magnificent job in a short time in helping Cincinnati's program get to the next level."
— Michael Tranghese
Former BIG EAST Commissioner

"He can have the worst team in college football believing they're the best team. That's the kind of guy he is."
— Mike Daniels
Former UC running back

"Former UC athletics director Bob Goin once said he tried everything to fill Nippert Stadium except parachuting fans into their seats from airplanes. Brian Kelly found another way. Armed with a wide-open offense and a salesman's personality, he sold out Nippert and created a spark around the UC football program in a Bengals-crazed town."
— Bill Koch
Cincinnati Enquirer

"Too many administrators these days are looking for the sexy hire, a beefed-up version of showmanship that may last a couple of years and fizzle out. You want success? Forget about projections and possibilities and hypotheticals; look at track records on the field. Brian Kelly wins. He won multiple championships at Division II Grand Valley State. He won a conference championship at Central Michigan. Watch how hard his teams play -- and watch how prepared they are. It's a simple formula: play hard, play smart, win championships."
— Matt Hayes
The Sporting News

"Brian Kelly proved he can build a championship program at Grand Valley State and Central Michigan. It was only a matter of time before he had Cincinnati winning Big East titles and playing in BCS bowl games."
— Mark Schlabach
ESPN.com

"Hiring Kelly has proven to be a brilliant move. The guy has shown to not only be a great motivator but also a whiz at developing talent. He has taken a rising program and elevated it to even greater heights."
— Bruce Feldman
ESPN the Magazine

Through an 18-year head coaching career, Kelly has established a reputation for building winning teams. He has won at every stop along the way, earning a pair of Division II National Championships at Grand Valley State (2002, 2003), winning a Mid-American Conference Championship at Central Michigan in 2006, before leading UC to its first BIG EAST title in 2008. Entering 2009, Kelly boasts a career record of 159-57-2. He is the winningest active BIG EAST coach and the only league coach with more than 150 wins.

Kelly has become one of the most recognizable faces in the Cincinnati area as he has undertaken a grass roots effort to reach the UC fan base and create strong ties to the local community. A sought after public speaker, Kelly has addressed a number of local organizations, unions, civic groups, and has served as the keynote speaker at many high-profile events, including the 2009 Big 33 Football Classic Awards Dinner.

During a whirlwind first month on the job in 2006 at UC, Kelly proved that he was up to the challenge of his new job. While preparing his new team for the inaugural International Bowl, he also managed to complete his coaching staff and fill out a talent-rich recruiting class. The Bearcats' 27-24 bowl victory over Western Michigan came just 34 days after his hiring.

In his first full season at the helm, Kelly put the Bearcats on the national radar by jumping out to a 6-0 start and earning the Bearcats their first appearance in the Top 25 in more than 30 years. Winning 10 games for the first time since 1951, UC earned its 10th bowl appearance and finished No. 17 in the Associated Press Top 25 poll, earning its first appearance in a final poll.

Along the way to the 2007 Papajohns.com Bowl victory, Kelly earned BIG EAST Coach of the Year honors. Cincinnati listed seven individuals on the all-BIG EAST teams, including Special Teams Player of the Year and consensus all-America punter Kevin Huber. The national leader in punting, Huber was one of three Bearcats to be named to an all-America team.

While many coaches lecture on the virtue of time of possession, Kelly stresses up-tempo play on both sides of the ball, using each practice to make his point. Armed with his no-huddle offense and the philosophy of a defense that must play 60 minutes, the Bearcats' mentor brings a different attitude to each workout.

Kelly's formula for success starts with an imaginative offense. Despite being forced to use five quarterbacks in 2008, UC ranked second in the BIG EAST and 24th nationally in passing offense (254.1), and was also second in the league and 27th nationally in passing efficiency (139.4). At the same time, UC's defense led the BIG EAST in sacks (2.9 per game), and tackles for a loss (6.5 per game).

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT
BRIAN KELLY

"I want to be Brian Kelly's agent. For him to accomplish what he has in such a short amount of time means one thing: As long as Cincinnati can afford to keep him, the Bearcats will continue to be an emerging national power. The Big East and the nation had better watch out."

— Dennis Dodd
CBS Sportsline

— Joe Schad
ESPN

"Brian Kelly has proven himself a winner everywhere he's been, and in a very short time he's already elevated the Cincinnati program to unprecedented national prominence. The Bearcats will be considered serious Big East contenders for as long as he's at the helm."

— Stewart Mandel
Sports Illustrated, SI.com

"He's turned this city upside down with an energy and passion for UC football that this city hasn't seeen in a long time. Heck, I'd run through a brick wall to play for him."

— Lance McAlister
700 WLW

"You stand next to Coach Kelly and you immediately feel a current of success. It's palpable. The guy just exhudes this energy that if following him, anything you've dreamed of can happen."

— Lenn Robbins
NY Post

"I had the luxury of visiting my alma mater in May (2008) and I was impressed with the direction of the program. Everything is in place for Cincinnati to compete. They have outstanding facilities, play in a strong conference, and Coach Kelly is committed to his players and the program."

— Urban Meyer
Head coach, University of Florida

"Brian Kelly is the right man for the job at Cincinnati. He is a proven winner, a creative thinker, great motivator, and has tremendous communication skills. Armed with great facilities, a BCS conference, and a growing fan base, the sky is the limit at Cincinnati with Brian as the leader of the Cats."

Kelly also believes in a strong special teams unit with starters from both sides of the ball participating. The Bearcats have led the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) the past two seasons in net punting average. UC also led the BIG EAST in kickoff returns, sacks, and tackles for a loss.

A program builder, Kelly proved that he can work magic in a short period of time. During his three years at Central Michigan, he transformed a Chippewas program that had won more than three games only once in the prior four seasons into a conference champion. They posted a 9-4 record in 2006 en route to winning the MAC Championship and qualifying for their first bowl game in 12 years.

Kelly inherited a program that had produced a mere 12 wins over its previous four seasons when he took the helm at Central Michigan in 2004. He guided the Chippewas to a 4-7 record in 2004 and a 6-5 slate—the school's first winning season in seven years—in 2005.

CMU began to take on Kelly's persona in 2005. The Chippewas defeated both defending MAC divisional champions, Miami (OH) and Toledo, and also knocked off the league's eventual 2005 champ Akron. Central Michigan was ranked 35th nationally in total offense and 26th in passing offense, while the team's rushing defense was ranked 20th.

Kelly's 2006 Chippewas lost non-conference contests to bowl-bound Boston College and Kentucky by a total of 16 points. CMU rolled up a 7-1 record in conference play to win the MAC West, then dominated Ohio, 31-10, in the league's championship game. Central Michigan boasted the 19th-most prolific passing attack in the nation, averaging 252.4 yards per game, and was ranked 31st in total offense (380.2 yards per game) and 24th in scoring offense (29.6 points). Quarterback Dan LeFevour, a freshman who passed for 2,869 yards and 25 touchdowns, was ranked 20th in passing efficiency and 14th in total offense.

Kelly had 12 of his players achieve first-team all-conference honors over his three years at CMU and three advanced to the NFL.

Kelly arrived at Central Michigan after winning back-to-back NCAA Division II national titles at Grand Valley State. The Lakers were 41-2 in Kelly's final three seasons, at one point winning 32 consecutive games. Grand Valley State went 14-0 in 2002 en route to its first national title and was 14-1 in 2003 when it claimed its second crown. Kelly was named the AFCA Division II Coach of the Year after both seasons.

Kelly led the Lakers to five conference titles and six Division II playoff appearances in his 13 seasons at Grand Valley. The Lakers never finished lower than third in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletics Conference.

Kelly mentored a pair of finalists for the Harlon Hill Award, presented annually to the top player in Division II. Curt Anes won the award in 2002 after finishing runner-up in 2001, while Jeff Fox was third in the balloting in 1998. Both players were quarterbacks in Kelly's system.

Kelly's Grand Valley State players earned 77 all-America awards. Four players moved on to the NFL and another three to the Canadian Football League. His 2001 national runner-up squad set 77 NCAA, GLIAC, and school records, including the all-time Division II scoring record by averaging 58.4 points per game. The 2001 team also became the first Division II unit in 53 years to average more than 600 yards per game in total offense (600.8).

Grand Valley State followed up its record-shattering 2001 season by averaging 497.5 yards and 47.0 points during its undefeated 2002 national championship run. The 2003 team, meanwhile, was more noted for its defense. The Lakers defeated North Dakota, 10-3, in the 2003 national title game.

A native of Chelsea, Mass., Kelly attended St. John's Prep School in Danvers, Mass. He was a four-year letterwinner at Assumption College (Mass.) as a linebacker. After graduating from Assumption in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in political science, he served as linebackers coach, defensive coordinator, and softball coach from 1983-86 at Assumption.

Kelly joined the Grand Valley State staff in 1987 as a graduate assistant and defensive backs coach. He became the defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 1989 and took over as head coach in 1991. His first team finished 9-3 and qualified for the NCAA Playoffs.

JEFF QUINN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR » OFFENSIVE LINE » 26TH SEASON

Quinn has spent 21 seasons coaching alongside UC head coach Brian Kelly, joining the Bearcats staff after coaching Central Michigan to a 31-14 win in the 2006 Motor City Bowl.

During his career, Quinn has coached 12 offensive lineman who have played in the professional ranks, as well as 22 players who have earned all-America status.

The UC offense averaged 27.3 points and 375.3 yards of total offense per contest on its way to the 2008 BIG EAST Championship. Offensive guard Trevor Canfield was an Associated Press Second-Team All-America selection, the first UC offensive lineman to earn a spot on the AP team since Bill Shalosky in 1952. Canfield was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the seventh round of the 2009 NFL Draft.

During his first season at Cincinnati, the Bearcats set three school records and ranked among the Top-20 offensive teams in the country.

Quinn served as the associate head coach at Central Michigan from 2004-2006. He arrived at CMU after 15 seasons at Grand Valley State. He was part of the staff that led the Lakers to back-to-back national championships in 2002 and 2003.

His offensive lines have blocked for 12 1,000-yard rushers, three Harlon Hill Award Finalists, including Curt Anes, who won the award in 2002. The Harlon Hill Trophy recognizes the nation's top Division II player.

The 2001 Laker offense averaged 600.8 yards and set an NCAA record by averaging 58.4 points per game.

He is a 1984 graduate of Elmhurst College where he was a two-sport standout in football and wrestling. In football, Quinn earned all-conference plaudits twice and was a third-team All-American in 1993. He also qualified for three NCAA Wrestling Championships in the heavyweight division and won two College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin titles. He was inducted into Elmhurst's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993.

Quinn launched his coaching career at DePauw as an assistant football and wrestling coach from August, 1984 to May, 1986 before going to Ohio Northern as head wrestling coach and an assistant football coach from June, 1986 until December, 1988. At ONU, he coached one National Champion wrestler, along with a trio of all-Americans.

Quinn earned a master of arts degree from DePauw in 1986 and an educational leadership master's degree endorsement from GVSU in 2000.

Quinn's son Kyle serves as the undergraduate student representative to the UC Board of Trustees.

Bob Diaco, who brings 14 years of collegiate coaching experience, enters his first season as UC's defensive coordinator.

Diaco (pronounced DEE-ah-ko) arrived at UC in Feb. of 2009 after spending three years at the University of Virginia.

Diaco spent the spring session installing UC's multiple-front defense and will lead a unit that replaces 10 starters from a year ago.

He inherits a defense that finished 31st in the nation in total defense (321.9 ypg), 19th in run defense (115 ypg), and led the BIG EAST in sacks (2.86).

He joined Al Groh's Virginia staff in Dec. 2005 as the linebackers and special teams coach, helping lead the team to the 2008 Konica/Minolta Gator Bowl. Following the close of the 2008 season, he was named the Cavaliers' defensive coordinator.

Diaco spent the 2005 season on head coach Brian Kelly's staff at Central Michigan where he served as co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

In 2004 he was the special teams and linebackers coach at Western Michigan. The Broncos finished in the top three in the Mid-American Conference in punting, punt returns, and kickoff returns that year.

From 2001-03, Diaco was an assistant coach at Eastern Michigan, where he moved from coaching the running backs to coaching linebackers to coaching the secondary.

Twice an all-Big Ten selection at the University of Iowa under Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry, Diaco was a semifinalist for the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker in 1995.

A 1995 graduate of the University of Iowa, he led the Hawkeyes in tackles in both 1994 and 1995 and finished his career as the seventh-leading tackler in Iowa history.

Diaco served as a graduate assistant at Iowa for two seasons in 1997-99 and helped the Hawkeyes to the Alamo and Sun Bowl games.

His first full-time position was at Western Illinois where he was the running backs and special teams coordinator in 1999 and 2000. The Leathernecks won the Gateway Conference crown in 2000 and made an appearance in the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs.

Diaco attended Cedar Grove High School in Cedar Grove, N.J., where he was a standout three-way player at linebacker, fullback, and punter, earning SuperPrep Northeast Defensive Player of the Year honors as a senior.

KERRY COOMBS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH » DEFENSIVE BACKS » THIRD SEASON

Kerry Coombs, who directed Colerain High School in suburban Cincinnati to a Division I state championship (2004) and four other semifinal appearances, enters his third season at UC.

Following the close of UC's BIG EAST Championship winning season in 2008, he was promoted to Associate Head Coach.

In 2008, Coombs mentored three NFL Draft picks, Mike Mickens (Dallas Cowboys), DeAngelo Smith (Dallas Cowboys), and Brandon Underwood (Green Bay Packers). Mickens was a second-team Walter Camp all-America honoree and UC's all-time leader in interceptions and interception return yardage, while Underwood was a first-team all-BIG EAST performer at safety in his only season at UC. Smith was the national leader in interceptions in 2007 with eight, and ranks second in UC history behind Mickens. The defense finished 31st in the nation in total defense (321.9 ypg) in 2008.

Coombs' first campaign as a member of the UC staff yielded instant results. The 2007 defense, led by his ball-hawking secondary, led the NCAA with 26 interceptions and 42 takeaways. That season, Coombs coached all-BIG EAST safety Haruki Nakamura, who was selected in the sixth round of the 2008 NFL draft.

One of the most celebrated prep coaches in Ohio, Coombs compiled a 161-34 (.826) record in 16 seasons at Colerain. His 2004 team posted a 15-0 record and won the state's Division I title with a 50-10 win in the championship game. Over his last seven seasons at Colerain, the Cardinals won seven league titles while compiling an 86-8 (.915) record.

Coombs' 2006 team went 13-1 and was ranked No. 1 in the final Ohio Associated Press poll and No. 18 in the USA Today national rankings.

His success at Colerain emphasized a defense he personally coached. In 2006, the Cardinals posted six shutouts and yielded just over a touchdown per game.

Coombs has mentored Ohio Division I Defensive Player of the Year award winners in 2004 and 2006, including former UC defensive tackle Terrill Byrd, who was also the national high school Defensive Player of the Year in 2004.

Coombs guided Colerain to 10 playoff appearances and seven undefeated regular-season records. The Cardinals won the Greater Miami Conference title and advanced to the regional finals of the state playoffs in each of his final seven seasons.

A member of the University of Dayton's 1980 NCAA Division III National Championship team, Coombs completed his bachelor's degree at Dayton in 1983 and later earned his master's in education at Wright State.

Mike Elston combines BCS playing experience with a winning coaching background. Elston, in his third season at UC, will coach the defensive line in 2009 after spending the past two seasons as tight ends coach.

Elston also serves as special teams coordinator and was promoted to assistant head coach following UC's BIG EAST Championship campaign in 2008. He was also UC's recruiting coordinator from 2007-08.

He has established UC's special teams unit as one of the best in the country. The Bearcats, behind two-time Associated Press all-America punter Kevin Huber, have led the nation in net punting in each of the past two seasons. UC is only the fourth team in NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision history to acomplish that task.

Huber, a consensus All-American in 2007, and kick returner Mardy Gilyard have helped UC win back-to-back BIG EAST Special Teams Player of the Year Awards. Huber earned the honor in 2007 and Gilyard took the award in 2008.

Elston helped UC sign a 22-member class only 65 days after Brian Kelly accepted the UC job in 2007 and was instrumental in coordinating a 24-member class in 2008, and a 28-member recruiting class in 2009.

In his three seasons with Central Michigan, Elston played many roles with the Chippewas, working his way up to special teams coordinator and linebackers coach in year three. In 2006, he instructed two all-Mid-American Conference linebackers, including the top tackler in the league. His work with special teams sparked a drastic improvement in the punting unit, which finished 19th nationally in net punting.

Elston spent the 2005 season as the co-defensive coordinator, developing a unit that led the MAC in rushing defense (113.7 ypg allowed). He worked directly with defensive end Daniel Bazuin, who led the country in tackles for loss (26.5) and tied a MAC record with 16 sacks. The success against the run came just two years after CMU ranked last in the MAC in rushing defense.

Prior to arriving in Mount Pleasant, Elston served a three-year stint at Eastern Michigan. He was the defensive ends coach for the Eagles in 2001 and then served as the defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator in 2002 and 2003. EMU was the most improved defense in Division I-A in both scoring and total yards in 2003.

Elston grew up in St. Marys, Ohio, where he garnered all-state honors in football, basketball, and track at Memorial High School. He went on to attend Michigan, where he was a three-year football letterwinner (1994-96). Elston remained in Ann Arbor for four years after his playing days were over, working as an assistant to the football camp director and then a graduate assistant. He was a member of the national championship program in 1997 that finished a perfect 12-0 season with a 21-16 win over Washington State in the Rose Bowl.

CHARLEY MOLNAR

Recruiting Areas: Cleveland, Eastern Pennsylvania, Western New Jersey

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR » WIDE RECEIVERS » 26TH SEASON

Charley Molnar, who has compiled 25 seasons of experience coaching on offense, mentors the wide receivers while also serving in the role of passing game coordinator for the Bearcats.

Molnar mentored a pair of record-setting receivers in 2008. Mardy Gilyard (1,276) and Dominick Goodman (1,028) both had 1,000-yard receiving campaigns, the first time a UC duo has eclipsed that mark since Jim O'Brien (1,107) and Tom Rossley (1,072) did it in 1968. Gilyard had a breakout year in 2008, catching 81 passes for a school-record 1,276 yards along with a team-high 11 touchdowns. Goodman's 84 receptions was also a school-record mark. Goodman ended his career as UC's all-time leader in receiving yards (2,512), receiving touchdowns (22), and tied for the top spot in receptions (204).

Molnar's aerial attack produced a historic season for the Bearcats in 2007, as UC set school records in touchdown passes (36) and passing yards (3,720). Wide receiver Marcus Barnett set a school mark with 13 touchdown receptions and earned all-BIG EAST honors under Molnar's watch.

Molnar spent the 2006 campaign in a similar role under Kelly at Central Michigan, aiding the passing game and tutoring the team's wide receivers and quarterbacks. He worked with a receiving corps that included five receivers who caught five or more touchdown passes and a rookie quarterback who ranked 19th nationally in passing efficiency.

The coaching veteran pulled off a rare feat in 2006 by coaching in 15 games, including the 2006 Mid-American Conference Championship game, 2006 Motor City Bowl, and 2007 International Bowl. The accomplishments do not stop there, as he worked with the Most Valuable Player in all three postseason games.

Molnar boasts 12 years of experience as an offensive coordinator. He spent the 2005 campaign as the offensive coordinator and associate head coach at Indiana State.

He also served as offensive coordinator, quarterbacks, and wide receivers coach for four seasons at Illinois State (1990-93) and held the same post at Kent State for seven years (1994-2000). Other coaching stops included Western Michigan (2003-04), Eastern Michigan (2002), Eastern Illinois (2001), and Western Carolina (1989).

A 1984 graduate of Lock Haven University, Molnar began his coaching career at his alma mater that same year. He spent three seasons at Lock Haven, during which he coached receivers, tight ends, running backs, and kickers.

He went on to serve as a graduate assistant at Virginia, aiding in the instruction of the quarterbacks and receivers during both the 1987 and 1988 campaigns.

Tim Hinton is heading into his sixth season as an assistant at UC coaching the running backs. He was named the team's recruiting coordinator during the winter of 2009.

He returned to the offensive side of the ball in 2008 after coaching linebackers during the 2007 season.

Hinton struck success almost immediately as running backs coach after arriving at Cincinnati in 2004. In his first season, he helped develop Richard Hall into a 1,000-yard rusher and an all-league performer and tutored a ground attack that averaged 183.4 yards per contest.

In 2006, Hinton worked with a trio of Bearcats running backs who combined for 1,358 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns. Hinton's efforts with UC's special teams resulted in the Bearcats averaging 22.8 yards per kickoff return, ranking 23rd nationally.

UC's backs averaged 117.6 yards per game in 2008 with Jacob Ramsey (47.4 ypg) and John Goebel (43.4 ypg) shouldering most of the carries. True freshman Isaiah Pead also got into the mix, averaging 27.7 yards per game on 30 carries.

Before arriving at UC, Hinton spent 11 seasons as head coach at Marion Harding High School, where he directed teams to five conference titles and five appearances in the state playoffs. He had two teams advance to the regional finals and sent 13 players to the major college playing ranks. In 1995, he was named Ohio Division I Co-Coach of the Year.

Hinton has served as an assistant in the college ranks for nine seasons. He spent three years at Ohio University, two as defensive line coach (1991-92) and one with the receivers (1990). He was a member of the Ohio State staff for two years (1985-86), helping the Buckeyes to a pair of bowls and a share of the 1986 Big Ten championship as a graduate assistant.

During his four seasons at Wilmington College (1981-84), Hinton helped the school to two league crowns and a pair of appearances in the NAIA playoffs.

Hinton launched his coaching career while an undergraduate at Wilmington, serving as an assistant at Amanda-Clearcreek High (Ohio) for three years (1978-80). He was a student assistant coach at Wilmington in 1981, and a head coach at Zane Trace (Ohio) and Van Wert (Ohio) high schools.

QUARTERBACKS » 19TH SEASON

A staple of Brian Kelly's football program has been Greg Forest, who continues his 19-year relationship with the head coach as quarterbacks coach at Cincinnati.

Forest has been instrumental in the development of second-team all-BIG EAST quarterback Tony Pike, who was one of five signal callers the Beracats called upon during their 2008 BIG EAST Championship season.

UC broke the school record for pass completions a year ago, with 290, surpassing the previous mark of 286 set in 2006. The Bearcats offense also had 472 pass attempts a year ago, ranking second in UC history.

In 2007, he mentored the UC quarterbacks to a school-record 36 touchdown passes. Graduate quarterback Ben Mauk was the centerpiece of Forest's tutelage, as he set the school mark in passing touchdowns (31), a total which placed second in the all-time BIG EAST record books. Mauk also finished in the top five in school annals in pass efficiency (150.64), completions (235), attempts (386) and yards (3,121) in his only season under Forest's watch.

Forest spent the 2006 campaign wearing the tag of assistant head coach to Kelly along with tight ends coach. He served three seasons at Central Michigan spending one season each instructing the receivers, running backs, and tight ends.

Forest worked primarily with the Chippewa running backs in 2005, molding freshman Ontario Sneed into a 1,000-yard rusher. Sneed went on to earn honorable mention all-Mid-American Conference and freshman all-America status from Sporting News and Rivals.com.

A native of Columbus, Ohio, Forest coached wide receivers for 11 years at Grand Valley State, mentoring the top five receivers in GVSU history, including the Lakers' all-time leading receiver David Kircus who went on to play in the NFL. Three of his players garnered all-America recognition.

A 1992 graduate of Ohio Northern University, Forest prepped at Grandview Heights High School (1982). He was a defensive back in football and also competed in wrestling and baseball.

He began his coaching career at Grandview Heights and, after four seasons, Forest went on to be a student assistant at Ohio Northern.

Forest first went to Grand Valley State in 1991 as a sports management intern and then served as an assistant coach at Capital University in 1992 before returning to GVSU in 1993. During his tenure at Grand Valley State, the Lakers qualified for the Division II Playoffs six times and won national championships in 2002 and 2003.

Former Michigan State two-way standout Lorenzo Guess rejoins the UC staff in 2009 as the tight ends coach.

Guess, who was a staff assistant with UC's strength and conditioning program in 2006, joins the Bearcats after a one-year stint as the men's basketball strength and conditioning coach at USF.

The former two-way Michigan State student-athlete played football and basketball for the Spartans and helped the Tom Izzo led-team to the 1999 Final Four.

Before arriving at USF, Guess worked as the head strength and conditioning coach at Alcorn State University. Prior to working at ASU, he spent time at Kentucky State University as the Secondary Coach/ Strength and Conditioning.

During the 2006 season, Guess served as a staff assistant for the University of Cincinnati's football program with the strength and conditioning staff.

In 2005, he served as the Secondary Coach and Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach for Tiffin University.

Guess graduated from Tiffin University with his Masters in Business Administration in 2007. He also earned a bachelor's degree in Human Resources and Political Science from Michigan State University in 2002.

While at MSU, Guess was a four-year letterman in football and two-year letterman in basketball. He was part of two Big Ten titles and a Final Four appearance (1999). The defensive back also had the privilege of playing in both the Citrus Bowl, securing a win against the University of Florida, and the Silicon Valley Bowl, defeating Fresno State University.

During his time at MSU, Guess was a major component of the 1999 defense which was ranked No. 1 in the Big Ten and No. 7 nationally under head coach Nick Saban. During the 2000 and 2001 seasons, the defensive units led the Big Ten in pass defense and were among the nation's Top-10.

Guess was also an Academic All-Big Ten selection from 1997-98.

WILLIAM INGE

Recruiting Areas: Eastern Ohio, Kentucky, Western Pennsylvania, Iowa

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS » 10TH SEASON

William Inge enters his second year on the University of Cincinnati football staff where he coaches the outside linebackers.

During UC's BIG EAST Championship season in 2008, Inge tutored a linebacking corps that accounted for three of the top-four tacklers on the team, including Ryan Manalac who led the squad with 82 stops. One of his pupils, Corey Smith, signed a free-agent deal with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Before joining UC in 2008, he served two years as the linebackers coach at San Diego State University.

While with the Aztecs, Inge mentored leading tackler Russell Allen to all-Mountain West Conference honorable-mention accolades. Allen amassed 119 tackles in 12 games in 2007, and led the league in tackles per MWC outing (10.6).

Prior to joining the Aztecs staff, he spent the 2005 campaign as defensive line coach at Colorado. In 2001, Inge was hired as a defensive assistant at the University of Northern Iowa, where he eventually became the co-defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator.

In 2005, as the Buffaloes' defensive line coach, Inge helped the Buffs to the Big 12 North Division title and advance to the Big 12 Championship Game. CU finished the season in the Champs Sports Bowl.

His one year in Boulder followed a four-year tenure at Northern Iowa, where he was the co-defensive and special teams coordinator in 2004. Inge also directed the Panthers' linebackers (2001-02) and defensive line (2003). His 2004 UNI defense allowed just 305 yards per game, to rank 15th in the nation, and was 12th nationally in scoring defense (18.0 ppg). That season, the Panthers finished ranked No. 25 in the final Division I-AA poll.

Inge lettered four times at Iowa (1993-96) and returned to Iowa City in 1998, where he spent three years as the Hawkeyes' recruiting coordinator and briefly as a graduate assistant.

Inge earned his bachelor's degree in Sports, Health, Leisure, and Physical Studies in 1996, and took the opportunity after returning to Iowa to attain his master's in Athletics Administration in 1999. As a player, he was a team co-captain his senior year, when he was an honorable mention all-Big Ten performer and a first-team Academic All-Big Ten member.

During his Iowa career, Inge made 173 tackles, with 37 for losses and 24 sacks. In addition, he earned two special awards from the coaching staff: the Appreciation Award for defense as a senior and the Hustle Award as a junior. Iowa was 17-7 overall his junior and senior years, including wins in the Sun and Alamo Bowls. He capped his collegiate career by playing in the 1997 Hula Bowl.

2006	Running Backs	Central Michigan
2007	Running Backs	Cincinnati
2008	Head Coach	Alcorn State
2009	Director of Player Services	Cincinnati

Ernest Jones, who spent the 2008 season as the head coach at Alcorn State University, returns to the University of Cincinnati as the Director of Player Services.

In his role, Jones will work directly with UC's student-athletes, providing guidance and counseling while ensuring they are adhering to the five core principles of head coach Brian Kelly's football program, regarding intellectual, social, spiritual, physical, and skill development.

He will also help manage many of UC's off-the-field responsibilities including overseeing the highly-successful Cats In The Community program.

Jones coached the running backs at UC during the 2007 season, and spent two years with Kelly at Central Michigan.

In 2006, he helped develop a Central Michigan rushing attack that averaged 127.9 yards per game. Jones moved to the offensive side after serving as the cornerbacks coach in 2005.

Prior to the 2006 season, Jones was one of 25 coaches nationwide selected to participate in the NCAA Expert Coaches Academy, a program designed to assist coaches with career advancement, networking and exposure opportunities, and to raise awareness regarding the substantial pool of talented and qualified minority coaching candidates.

Jones arrived at CMU from Oberlin College where he served as the defensive coordinator and defensive secondary coach in 2004. He spent the 2003 campaign at Kentucky State.

After playing five years of professional football, Jones began his coaching career at Concordia University (Minn.) where he mentored the defensive backs from 2000-02.

Jones, who earned an associate's degree from Hinds Community College in 1993, is a 1995 graduate of Alcorn State University. He earned a master's degree from Concordia in 2002 and is currently working on his doctorate in human services at Walden University.

PAUL LONGO

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING » 22ND SEASON

Longo, who was named Cincinnati's director of football strength and conditioning in January, 2007, oversees the weight training and conditioning efforts for UC's football program.

UC has become one of the top closing teams in the country under the direction of Kelly and Longo. Dating back to the 2007 International Bowl, the Bearcats are 21-0 when entering the fourth quarter with a lead. When leading at halftime, UC is 19-2.

A recipient of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association's Master Strength Coach Award, which is the highest achievement in the field, in May, 2001, Longo spoke at the 1993 National Strength and Conditioning Association convention on "Functional Speed Development for Football."

A 22-year coaching veteran, Longo has produced eight NFL Draft picks during his tenure at UC, including a school-record six picks in 2009. Connor Barwin (second), Kevin Huber (fifth), DeAngelo Smith (fifth), Brandon Underwood (sixth), Mike Mickens (seventh), and Trevor Canfield (seventh) were part of the 2009 draft class while Haruki Nakamura (sixth), and Angelo Craig (seventh) were selected in 2008.

Prior to joining the Bearcats, Longo worked with Kelly at Central Michigan where he mentored six NFL draft choices in his three years with the Chippewas, and won the 2006 Mid-American Conference Championship.

Longo served alongside legendary Iowa head coach Hayden Fry as strength and conditioning coach from June, 1988 until January, 1999. He played a key role in the Hawkeyes' development during the program's 1990 Big Ten championship season.

While working with the Hawkeyes, Longo was a part of seven bowl trips, including two stops at the Sun Bowl, and one appearance each in the Rose Bowl, Peach Bowl, Alamo Bowl, and the Holiday Bowl.

During his tenure with the football team, the Hawkeyes had more than 80 players drafted into the NFL. The victorious 1996 Alamo Bowl team had 19 former walk-ons on its 65-man squad.

A four-year starter on the Wayne State football team and twice its MVP, Longo set season and career receiving records. He was in training camps as a free agent with four professional teams in three different leagues.

Longo, who was a first-team all-state selection at Sterling Heights Stevenson (Wisc.) in 1976, began his professional career as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Wisconsin in March, 1987, before moving to Iowa in 1988.

1991-2008	Owner / Operator	NovaCare Rehabilitation
2002-07	Director of Rehabilitation	Cincinnati
2005-08	Athletics Trainer	Cincinnati

Bob Mangine's extensive experience in the field of athletic training makes him well-suited to recognize and treat injuries as well as advise on their prevention.

As athletic trainer for football, Mangine supervises a program that addresses the health and well-being of the Bearcats on a year-round basis by drawing from over three decades of experience in sports medicine.

Mangine, who assumed the football duties in 2005, has served as Director of Rehabilitative Services at the University of Cincinnati since 2002. He has worked with both amateur and professional athletes since 1976, when he first arrived at UC.

In 1982, he assisted in the development of the nationally-recognized Cincinnati Sports Medicine and Orthopaedic Center. After serving approximately 10 years with the organization, he started his own practice which merged with NovaCare Rehabilitation in 1998.

While he was a student at the University of Pittsburgh, Mangine launched his career in athletic training. He served as assistant athletic trainer of the Pittsburgh Condor Basketball Club and as head athletic trainer at the Community College of Allegheny County prior to graduation in 1977.

Mangine served as director of rehabilitation at UC from 1977-80 while earning his master's degree. After two years as an assistant professor of physical therapy at the Medical College of Virginia, he returned to Cincinnati to work in private clinics.

Mangine currently serves as National Director of Sports Physical Therapy Clinical Residency for NovaCare and is President of MBM Consultants, which provides educational management services for physical therapy and occupational therapy professionals.

A 25-year award recipient of the National Athletic Trainers Association, he was the head athletic trainer for the aquatic teams at the 1996 Olympics, and the Goodwill Games of 1986, 1990 and 1998. He is a charter member of the Sports Physical Therapy Section Hall of Fame and the Covington Catholic (Ky.) High School Athletics Hall of Fame.

JOHN WIDECAN
ASSISTANT AD/FOOTBALL OPERATIONS » 21ST SEASON

John Widecan begins his 21st season with the University of Cincinnati Football Program.

As the Assistant Director of Athletics for Football Operations, he is in charge of the day-to-day operations for the team, including duties such as team travel, recruiting operations, events, camps, clinics, team schedule, technology, and other facets of the football program.

Widecan joined the Bearcats in 1989 as a graduate assistant football coach. He was promoted in 1991 to a full-time administrative position in which he assisted with day-to-day operations and assumed the duties of video director for the football team. Widecan was recognized as the 1997-98 Conference USA Video Coordinator of the Year by the Collegiate Sports Video Association.

As his responsibilities continued to expand, he was named the Director of Football Operations in 2000, and the program hired a video coordinator to handle the increased team video needs.

A native of Wickliffe, Ohio, he was an all-conference and all-area performer at Wickliffe High. He earned Football News Division III all-America honors as well as all-ECAC acclaim at Mercyhurst.

He earned his bachelor's degrees in mathematics and education in 1988. He later received his master's degree in criminal justice from UC in 1990.

FOOTBALL PROGRAM ASSOCIATE » SECOND SEASON

Beth Rex begins her second season as a football program associate, and her eighth overall at Cincinnati. In her current position as assistant to the head coach, Rex coordinates Brian Kelly's schedule and is responsible for all football staff and office operations as well as event planning.

Previously, she served as an athletic trainer for the Bearcats' football, baseball, women's basketball, men's soccer, tennis, men's and women's golf, cheerleading, and dance teams. Along with her training work on the field, Rex managed the administrative responsibilities for the athletic training room. She oversaw the budget, handled all purchases and inventory and processed all medical claims for UC's student-athletes.

Rex came to Cincinnati with extensive experience at the college and professional level. Prior to arriving at Cincinnati, she spent two years as an assistant athletic trainer at Memphis. While there, she provided primary care assessment and treatment for baseball, women's basketball and men's soccer. During the spring of 2001, she also aided the Memphis Maniax of the XFL.

Rex earned her first full-time athletic training position at the College of Wooster in August of 1998. During her one year on the Division III campus, she managed the athletic training duties for 21 varsity sports.

A 1996 graduate of Cincinnati, Rex began her career as a graduate assistant at Eastern Kentucky University. She earned her master's degree in one year and quickly moved on to the National Athletic Trainers' Association's national headquarters in Dallas in 1997.

HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER » THIRD SEASON

Barry Boyd is entering his third season as the head equipment manager at UC and his first working directly with the football team.

Boyd handles all day-to-day aspects of the football program's equipment, including purchasing, maintenance, organization, and coordination of the 12-member student assistant program. He prides himself on fitting all student-athletes, coaches, and staff with the proper equipment and adidas apparel.

He also oversees the purchasing, storing, issuing, fitting and repairing of all athletics equipment and works directly with adidas to outfit all 18 Division I men's and women's sports in accordance with the NCAA, BIG EAST Conference and University rules and regulations.

His responsibilities for home and away games and practices consist of the setup and teardown of Nippert Stadium, UC's home and game locker rooms, as well as ensuring equipment is ready for travel. Boyd coordinates the logistical efforts for taking the Bearcats' equipment on the road with Bill Kissel, the owner of Bell Moving and Storage, located in Fairfield, Ohio.

Prior to joining the UC staff in August of 2007, Boyd served a year as the head equipment manager at the University of Tulsa, where he was responsible for outfitting all 18 of the Golden Hurricane squads.

He also had two stints at the United States Naval Academy, serving as an assistant equipment manager from 2005-06, and as an intern from 2003-04. He started his career at UCLA, working as an assistant equipment manager from 2004-05, and served as a student manager at Oklahoma State.

He has also worked a pair of internships in the NFL, spending time with the San Francisco 49ers in 2002, and the New Orleans Saints in 2001.

Boyd earned a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from Oklahoma State University in 2003. He became a certified member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Associated (AEMA) in 2004. He has a five-year old son, Isaiah M. McFarlin.

JOHN SELLS
VIDEO COORDINATOR » THIRD SEASON

John Sells begins his third year as the video coordinator for the Cincinnati football program. He is responsible for the preparation of weekly scouting reports, film breakdown, implementation of recruiting weekends, motivation videos, daily practice video, and overseeing a staff of student assistants.

Sells served in a similar role at Western Michigan from 1999 through 2004. He was a part of back-to-back MAC West Division titles in each of his first two seasons working for Gary Darnell's Broncos.

While in Kalamazoo, Sells implemented the XOS SportsPro editing system for football. He also recruited, supervised, and trained student assistants to aid in the video work associated with practices and games. His role also included maintaining the equipment and supplies, transportation, and setup of equipment on the road and tape exchanges for the Broncos.

Prior to joining Western Michigan's staff, Sells spent one season at East Carolina. As Director of Athletics Video, his duties entailed staffing and coordinating the video efforts at Pirate events. He moved to the Greenville, N.C., campus after serving two seasons as video coordinator at Ball State.

A former walk-on wide receiver, Sells was part of two Mid-American Conference championship teams at Ball State. He was a sophomore on the roster during the Cardinals' trip to the 1993 Las Vegas Bowl and was a graduate assistant when they returned to Las Vegas in 1996. He was forced to move to a student assistant's position for his senior season after a knee injury ended his playing career.

GERRY BEAUCHAMP
RECRUITING ASSISTANT » SECOND SEASON

With over 10 years of local high school coaching experience, Gerry Beauchamp joins the Cincinnati football operations efforts for the 2008 season. Beauchamp aids Assistant Athletics Director John Widecan in all facets of football operations, including organization of summer camps, team travel, and recruiting visits.

Beauchamp spent four seasons as an assistant varsity coach at Mason High School, his alma mater. While at Mason, he worked directly with the receivers, mentoring the top three wide outs in school history.

Beauchamp spent a year at Western Hills High School, where he coached both football and track and field. In 2006, he won a Kentucky state championship with Covington Catholic High School. Following a two-year stint at Covington Catholic, Beauchamp moved on to Shroder High School, where he served as varsity offensive coordinator as well as varsity and junior varsity quarterbacks and wide receivers coach.

Beauchamp is a 2006 graduate of the University of Cincinnati with a degree in psychology. He earned his master's degree in sport administration from Xavier University in Dec. 2008.

JON CARPENTER
GRADUATE ASSISTANT » SECOND SEASON

After four seasons as a running back/linebacker for the Bearcats, Jon Carpenter trades in his helmet for a headset as he enters his second season as a defensive graduate assistant for Brian Kelly.

Carpenter made 72 tackles, including two sacks, while playing a key role on special teams coverage units throughout his Bearcats career. He was the recipient of the Jim Kelly Spirit Award in 2008.

A three-time BIG EAST All-Academic selection, Carpenter graduated in the spring of 2008 with a degree in industrial management and a minor in mathematics.

Carpenter's father, Rob, played 11 seasons in the NFL, his older brother Bobby is a fourth-year member of the Dallas Cowboys and his younger brother George is a sophomore linebacker at Marshall University.

MIKE DANIELS
STAFF ASSOCIATE » FIRST SEASON

Former University of Cincinnati letterwinner Mike Daniels enters his first season as a staff associate with the football program.

Daniels will assist the offensive staff in all aspects on and off the field. A 2007 UC graduate, Daniels spent 2008 working for the UC Alumni Association as a program coordinator handling major events, student outreach, and alumni programs in the Cincinnati region.

He was a four-year letterwinner (2003-07) as a wide receiver, running back, and return man, serving as team captain in 2007 and earning the Jim Kelly Spirit Award that same year.

He caught 24 balls for 223 yards and a touchdown as a receiver, and had a 19.4 career kickoff return average. He lost the better part of two seasons (2006-07) to injuries.

Daniels, a multiple-year honoree on the Bearcats Academic Honor Roll, earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from UC in 2007. He is working towards his master's degree in criminal justice at UC.

JACOB FLINT
ASSISTANT STRENGTH COACH » THIRD SEASON

After spending four years as a member of the Central Michigan football program, Jacob Flint enters his third season as a member of the strength and conditioning staff at the University of Cincinnati.

A walk-on for the Chippewas, Flint was rewarded for his dedication to the football program with a scholarship from Brian Kelly's staff. A scout team contributor for three years, he continued his involvement with the program after exhausting his eligibility.

Flint worked as a student assistant, serving primarily in the weight room and assisting the development of the running backs for the 2006 campaign in which the Chippewas won both Mid-American Conference and Motor City Bowl titles.

A native of Shepherd, Mich., Flint graduated with honors from Central Michigan in 2007. A four-sport letterwinner at Shepherd High School, he was a two-time all-league running back. Flint earned all-state honors after leading the Bluejays to the state semifinals during his final prep campaign. He is married to the former Katie Schafer.

MICHAEL PAINTER
STAFF ASSOCIATE » THIRD SEASON

Michael Painter is entering his third season as a staff associate at the University of Cincinnati. He will work with the defensive staff in 2009.

He served in a similar role for a year at Central Michigan, where he assisted in all facets of football operations. He was an integral part of the practice routine and managed the scout team defense and special teams units that helped the Chippewas win both the 2006 Mid-American Conference and Motor City Bowl titles.

Painter played football collegiately at Mount Union College, where he won an Ohio Athletic Conference Championship and a trip to the 2003 NCAA Division III National Championship game. An injury cut short his playing career, and he transferred to Bowling Green where he graduated magna cum laude with his degree in sport management in 2006.

MARTY SPIELER
GRADUATE ASSISTANT » THIRD SEASON

Spieler works with the offensive staff, and the spent the spring of 2008 coaching the tight ends.

Prior to coming to Cincinnati, Spieler spent one season as offensive tackles and tight ends coach at his alma mater. He served as a graduate assistant at Georgia Southern, where he finished his degree in kinesiology with an emphasis in sports psychology.

While at Allegheny, Spieler was a three-year letterwinner with the Blue and Gold and was also an All-NCAC performer in the javelin for two years. He graduated in 2004 with a double major in psychology and religious studies and is married to the former Angela Teckmeyer.

INTERIM UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

MONICA RIMAI, JD

Monica Rimai, JD, is the University of Cincinnati's Interim President. She has served as Senior Vice President for Administration and Finance at UC since 2006 and retains that title in addition to her presidential duties. She is the 26th president of UC.

She was initially recruited to the university in 2005. In her role in Administration and Finance, she has led the effort to restructure the university's finances, paying down a significant structural deficit, opening up participation in the budget-setting process, introducing performance-based budgeting, strengthening ethics and regulatory compliance, and reorganizing administrative areas for improved efficiency.

Prior to joining UC, Rimai spent five years at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, including two years as interim Vice Chancellor for Administrative Affairs, the principal administrative officer for the university. Rimai has experience as an assistant U.S. attorney, municipal attorney and as an attorney in private practice.

She earned her JD degree from the University of Michigan in 1987, preceded by a bachelor's degree in history from the same university in 1984.

UNIVERSITY MISSION STATEMENT

The University of Cincinnati serves the people of Ohio, the nation, and the world as a premier, public, urban research university dedicated to undergraduate, graduate, and professional education, experience-based learning, and research. We are committed to excellence and diversity in our students, faculty, staff, and all of our activities. We provide an inclusive environment where innovation and freedom of intellectual inquiry flourish. Through scholarship, service, partnerships, and leadership, we create opportunity, develop educated and engaged citizens, enhance the economy and enrich our University, city, state and global community.

UNIVERSITY OF
Cincinnati

MIKE THOMAS
COLORADO STATE '83 » FIFTH YEAR

A 24-year veteran of college athletics administration, Thomas was named as the University of Cincinnati's Director of Athletics on October 20, 2005. Since taking the reins of the department with 18 teams and 560 student-athletes, Thomas has championed student-athlete development and significant external growth, while also authoring a detailed plan for competitive success in the BIG EAST Conference and on the national level.

In May of 2006, Thomas introduced his vision for Bearcats Athletics, aptly titled CATAPULT. Thomas's five-year vision for UC's 18-sport intercollegiate program was launched on the six-month anniversary of his hiring. The plan focuses on three main initiatives: winning BIG EAST team championships, high-level academic achievement, and a comprehensive integration with the UC Campus and Greater Cincinnati Community.

CATAPULT - an acronym for championships, academics, and together - sets a goal that in the next five years UC will win a BIG EAST championship in every sport; UC's student-athletes will lead the general student body in graduation rate and grade-point average; and UC's student-athletes and coaches will engage the UC campus and the Cincinnati community in service.

By the end of 2008-09, the third year under the CATAPULT plan, UC's sports teams continue to excel in academics as 11 of the 18 sports programs achieved a grade-point average (GPA) of 3.0 or higher and the student-athletes continued to graduate at a rate of 16 percent higher than the overall student body. Those numbers will continue to grow as more and more students receive the benefits of the recently expanded and redefined academic services office and the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program. In 2007-08, Cincinnati was second in the 16-member BIG EAST with five teams garnering BIG EAST Academic Excellence Awards for posting the highest grade-point average in their respective sports (football, men's cross country, women's golf, women's swimming and diving, and indoor track and field).

"It is exciting to see our student-athletes and staff working together and making significant progress in so many areas, so quickly," says Thomas. "We will continue to progress as we work towards our collective goals in the three components of our CATAPULT vision."

The football team made program history in head coach Brian Kelly's third season at the helm. Kelly led UC to a school-record 11 wins in 2008, along with the school's first BIG EAST Conference Championship, and an appearance in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl, the first Bowl Championship Series appearance by Cincinnati. The Bearcats' 21 wins since 2007-08 marks the best two-year stretch in school history, and the first time UC has won 10 or more games in back-to-back seasons.

The UC volleyball team also posted a historic year in the fall as it claimed its first BIG EAST title since joining the league and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for just the second time in program history. Four Bearcats earned conference honors, including Jessie Nevitt, who became the first player in UC volleyball history to earn first-team all-conference honors four times in a career.

All told, UC Athletics produced five all-Americans, one all-Region selection, and 28 all-BIG EAST honorees in 2008-09.

"Spreading the Bearcats' message is vital to our continued brand building efforts and our charge to reach out to our fans, alumni, and Greater Cincinnati Community and share the excitement of being a Bearcat," says Thomas. "I am very proud of the strides that we are making in all areas of UC Athletics. Our achievement is coming as a result of working together as a team. Our student-athletes and staff are setting the bar high and then reaching their goals, which is fun to be a part of."

In March 2007 UC Athletics was recognized in the 2006-07 Diversity in Athletics Award, presented by the Laboratory for Diversity in Sport at Texas A&M University. The award recognizes the NCAA Division I athletics departments that excel in various areas of diversity. UC was one of just 10 programs nationwide to earn the Diversity in Athletics Award for the graduation of African American male student-athletes.

On the external side, the University of Cincinnati is growing at a tremendous rate.

UC established single-season attendance records for football in each of the past two years, as it has posted eight of the Top-12 crowds in Nippert Stadium history. In just four years at UC, Thomas has seen the average attendance in football skyrocket as it has almost doubled (16,016 to 31,965).

In terms of donor development, the UCATS office has reached all-time highs for participation with over 3,800 donors joining the club in 2008-09 (double its total two years ago) and annual donations exceeding $5 million. Thomas' work on the multi-phase "Raising the Bar" capital campaign, which will fund various initiatives for the football program, was crucial in program raising its first $5 million over a six-week period.

Fundraising and major gifts are on-going processes at UC with plans to build a new outdoor sports complex with a bubble which will serve as a practice venue for football and a competition site for lacrosse. The department is also studying the potential renovations and or expansions of Nippert Stadium and Fifth Third Arena.

Those renovations are import because two months before the first football game of 2009, season ticket sales for UC football broke the all-time record (11,500) and were approaching 14,500 season ticket holders before the start of the 2009 season.

Beginning in the fall of 2008, all UC teams were outfitted exclusively in adidas footwear, uniforms, training apparel, and accessories as the department signed its first across-the-board shoe and apparel contract. The four-year, $14.5 million contract aligns UC with other adidas marketing partners such as the NFL, MLS, and an 11-year exclusive all-league partnership with the NBA.

Later in 2008-09, Thomas reached an agreement with IMG College, a division of IMG Worldwide, for a new 12-year multimedia rights partnership worth more than $30 million in guaranteed payments to the University.

Prior to coming to UC, Thomas spent five years as the Director of Athletics at the University of Akron and seven years as associate athletic director at the University of Virginia, an institution known for achieving impressive success both academically and athletically, before bringing that model to Akron. Virginia finished in the top 25 in the Director's Cup in each year of Thomas' tenure there while at the same time was in the top ten nationally in student-athlete graduation rates.

Under Thomas' direction, Akron rose from last place to second among Mid-American Conference schools in the Director's Cup annual rankings. Simultaneously, Akron vaulted from last to second place in the MAC Academic Achievement Awards. Thomas increased the financial base of the Akron athletics program through increasing corporate sponsorship levels by 500 percent and boosted annual giving to athletics to its highest level in the school's history. Community support was rallied, with marked increases shown in football and basketball attendance. During this time period, the Zips won their first MAC football championship and the hiring of men's basketball coach Keith Dambrot has led to unparalleled success on the hardwood.

Support services and facilities for academic support for student-athletes were significantly increased, which resulted in a significant improvement in grade point averages and graduation rates of UA student-athletes.

Thomas coordinated over $140 million in facility construction and renovation, including $25 million in capital improvements at Akron, including a new indoor fieldhouse, a football practice complex, and a softball facility. He also spearheaded the new football stadium and was instrumental in the initial fundraising and planning stages of the facility which is currently under construction on the Akron campus and set to open in the fall of 2009.

Recognized for his administrative acumen by his peers, Thomas presently serves on several national and conference committees, including the NCAA Division I Championship/Sports Management Cabinet (where he also serves as the NCAA men's basketball liaison to the cabinet), the NCAA Men's Basketball Issues Committee, and he also chairs the BIG EAST Championship and Competition Committee. Thomas has also previously served as a member of the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet, the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Issues Committee, the NCAA Division I Academics/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet, the NCAA Postseason Bowl Licensing Subcommittee, and the Division 1A Athletics Director's Association Legislative Review Committee.

Twice during his career, Thomas has received distinction for his efforts and dedication as a director of athletics, garnering the General Robert R. Neyland Outstanding Athletics Director Award in 2005 at Akron and then again in April of 2008 at Cincinnati.

Prior to his experience at Virginia, Thomas spent seven years at the University of Denver as assistant athletic director for internal operations, and one year at the University of Iowa in marketing and promotions.

Thomas, 49, received his B.S. degree in Business Administration from Colorado State University in 1983, and his M.S. degree in Athletic Administration from Western Illinois University in 1986. He and his wife, Jenifer, have four children: Vince, Joey, Mick, and Meredith.

SENIOR ADMINISTRATION

BOB ARKEILPANE
Deputy Director of Athletics

Bob Arkeilpane joined the University of Cincinnati as Deputy Director of Athletics in December of 2005. He is the No. 2 administrator in charge of UC's 18-sport intercollegiate athletics program and oversees the daily operations of the athletics department.

Arkeilpane has three decades of Division I experience as a student-athlete, coach, and administrator. He joined the Bearcats Department of Athletics in 2005 after serving for three years as Associate Vice President of the UC Foundation, the private sector fund-raising entity for the University of Cincinnati and its campuses, colleges, departments, and units. Arkeilpane previously had worked for the UC Foundation as college director of development and alumni affairs from 1987-91.

Arkeilpane made his return to UC after five successful years as Director of Athletics at the University of Buffalo. Arkeilpane was named officer-in-charge in UB's Division of Athletics and then served as interim athletics director for 10 months prior to being named director in February 1999. He was promoted to the helm of the Bulls' department of athletics after spending three years as Associate Athletics Director of Development at UB starting in 1995.

A native of Amherst, N.Y. and a standout high school football player at Sweet Home High School, he earned an athletics scholarship to Syracuse, where he was a starting defensive back for three seasons. He played with future NFL stars Art Monk, Joe Morris, and Gary Anderson — and against such big-name players as Warren Moon, Dan Marino, and Jim Kelly. Arkeilpane earned his bachelor`s degree in 1981 from Syracuse. He earned his master's degree from Ohio University while serving as a graduate assistant football coach.

MIKE WADDELL
Senior Associate Director of Athletics/External Relations

Mike Waddell joined the UC athletics family as senior associate director of athletics in March, 2006. His duties include oversight of the revenue generating areas of the department: marketing/fan development, ticketing/customer service, sports communications, information technology, the CAT TRACKS Wheels of Support program, and UC's profitable athletics licensing and merchandising efforts. He also directs UC's fundraising efforts with UC's Men's Track & Field/Cross-Country / Men's Swimming & Diving teams and serves as a member of UC's Campus Communications Cabinet.

Waddell has sport oversight over the UC men's soccer, men's and women's golf, and men's and women's swimming/diving teams. He also serves as the department's liaison with adidas, IMG College, ESPN and FS Ohio and is a member of the BIG EAST Golf Committee.

The North Carolina native came to UC from The University of Akron, where he served as the associate athletics director for external relations. UA's sports marketing revenues increased more than five-fold during Waddell's tenure via the creation of the TEAM AKRON corporate patron program.

A 1991 graduate of Guilford College (NC) where he was a two-time football letterman, Waddell is an active member of NACDA, and BCA, and serves on the American Cancer Society Board in Cincinnati and is a founding member of the Cincinnati Sports Professionals Network (CSPN). Waddell also is a coach with the Glen Este Youth Basketball Association and donates time to work with the Aubrey Rose Foundation, benefitting seriously ill children in the Tri-State Area.

ANDY HURLEY
Senior Associate Director of Athletics/Development

Andy Hurley joined the University of Cincinnati in March of 2006 to head the Athletics Development office. His primary duties are centered on managing efforts to generate private, philanthropic support to assist UC's student-athletes and coaches in building championship caliber programs in the BIG EAST.

He came to UC after seven years at the University at Buffalo, where he served as UB's Director of Athletics Development since September of 1998 before being appointed an assistant athletics director of development in July of 2003.

Hurley earned his bachelor's degree from UB in 1984 and starred on the football team at defensive back, earning ECAC and Pizza Hut All-America honors in 1984. He received his master's degree in sports administration from the University of Massachusetts in 1987.

DERRICK MAGEE
Associate Director of Athletics/Chief Business Officer

Derrick Magee joined the UC Department of Athletics in October of 2008 as the chief business officer. He develops and monitors the budget performance and strategic planning for the department of athletics and Fifth Third Arena, which encompasses UC's 18 sports and 15 administrative and support areas.

In addition, he oversees and coordinates the department's business, personnel, payroll, and ticket operations.

Magee is also responsible for preparing all University, BIG EAST Conference, NCAA, and public financial reports for the department.

He joined UC from the University of the Pacific where he was the assistant director of athletics for finance and internal affairs since 2006. In June 2009, he graduated from the NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males and Females and was named vice president of the Collegiate Athletic Business Management Association (CABMA).

Magee graduated in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in physical education/sport management from Florida A&M University and was a member of the basketball team. He went on to earn his M.B.A. from California State University Stanislaus in August of 2005 and is currently working on his doctorate in higher education administration through the University of the Pacific.

ROBIN MARTIN
Associate Director of Athletics/Senior Woman Administrator

Robin Martin, who has three years of experience as a director of athletics at two institutions, and over 15 years of experience in the field of athletics, took over as UC's Associate AD and Senior Woman Administrator in August, 2007. Martin currently manages 10 of the 18 intercollegiate sport programs and provides supervision for compliance, academics, and CHAMPS/Life Skills.

Prior to coming to UC, Martin was the Director of Athletics at Holy Names University, where she was the first African-American woman to ever hold the position. There, she was the oversight of 10 intercollegiate sports programs, intramurals and recreation, and served as the facilities manager. Under her leadership, the HNU athletics department produced four conference championships, four conference MVP's, and three regional championship appearances.

Prior to HNU, Martin served as the Director of Athletics and head women's basketball coach at Dillard University in New Orleans. Under her direction the department garnered one of the highest student-athlete graduation rates in the nation.

Martin is an integral part of the UC community as well as in Greater Cincinnati, serving in various leadership roles on local boards and committees.

A former basketball coach for 10 years and a Division I basketball player at the University of New Orleans, Martin received a bachelor of arts degree in English and a master's degree in education. Martin was recently accepted into the Urban Education Leadership PhD. program at UC.

DAN KRONE

Assistant Director of Athletics/Facilities and Operations
Dan Krone joined the University of Cincinnati as the Assistant Director of Athletics for Facilities and Operations in May of 2007. Krone is responsible for the staff which operates all of the athletics facilities, including Nippert Stadium and Fifth Third Arena. He is involved with security, parking, ushers, and all aspects of game-day operations for UC events. His duties also include oversight of the strength and conditioning facility/program, the equipment room, as well as any new construction and renovations involving athletics.

Krone comes to Cincinnati after spending four years at the University of Akron where he was the director of the athletics fieldhouse and building services. There, he oversaw all aspects of Akron's 157,000-square foot, state-of-the-art field house which includes a 120-yard football field, a 300-meter track, four batting cages, 8,000-square foot strength and conditioning room, and locker rooms.

A former college basketball player at Bethany College in Lindsborg, Kan., Krone earned his bachelor's degree from there in 1983 in recreational sports administration. He went on to pick up his master's degree from Eastern Michigan in 1990.

MICHAEL HARRIS

Assistant Director of Athletics/Sports Communications
Michael Harris joined the University of Cincinnati as Assistant Athletics Director for Sports Communications in April of 2007.

Harris' responsibilities include directing Cincinnati's sports communications department and assisting with the continued development of UC Athletics multimedia, most notably GoBEARCATS.com. He will also serve as a media contact for the Bearcats basketball program.

No stranger to the Cincinnati media, Harris, a native of Springboro, Ohio, worked at Miami University (Ohio) for six years (2001-2007) as an assistant director of athletics, overseeing various media relations and marketing roles. Harris helped the RedHawks realize unprecedented growth in season ticket and attendance numbers, doubling the season ticket base and setting all-time highs for ticket revenue.

Harris is a 1995 graduate of Miami where he earned a bachelor of science degree in organizational behavior.

DR. FRITZ RUSS

Faculty Athletics Representative
President Nancy L. Zimpher appointed Dr. Fritz Russ, Professor of Marketing, as the faculty athletics representative for the Cincinnati Department of Athletics, effective February 1, 2007.

Academic integrity, institutional control of the athletics program, and promotion of student-athlete welfare are a FAR's major focus.

The position's duties include being a liaison between academics and athletics; serving on UC's Athletics Advisory Council; assisting in institutional certification processes; participating in compliance reviews; monitoring student-athletes' academic performance and their welfare; assessing and advising on NCAA and conference policies; and attending conference and NCAA meetings.

Russ, who joined the UC faculty in 1989, has previously served the university as Senior Vice Provost, as Dean of the College of Business and as Marketing Department Head. He currently teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in international marketing and in marketing research. An active researcher, he is also involved in the business community through consulting and corporate boards.

Before coming to the University of Cincinnati, he was a chaired professor at the University of North Carolina, where he also participated for four years on the university's faculty athletics committee. Russ earned a bachelor's degree from Eckerd College and a master's and doctorate from Carnegie-Mellon University.

UCATS

OUR MISSION

To provide financial support to fund student-athlete scholarships and special needs of the athletics department; while fostering camaraderie, sportsmanship, and school spirit among students, faculty & staff, alumni and friends of the University of Cincinnati athletics programs.

GROWING UCATS

UCATS was established in 1979 to provide student-athletes at the University of Cincinnati with the finest scholastic and athletic resources possible. The private support we received from donors enables us to provide deserving student-athletes with the necessary tools to be successful in their respective sport, in the classroom, and in the community.

Increasing the number of memberships in UCATS is critical to building an economic model that will support the long-term growth of UC Athletics. In 2006-07, UC ranked last compared to football playing schools in number of donors to athletics. Although membership in UCATS has grown by 34 percent in the past year, our goal must be to join our BIG EAST peers and provide 100 percent of the scholarship funding needs to attract the best and brightest athletes to our program.

SUPPORT YOUR TEAM

Once again UCATS is offering the opportunity to direct your support to one of your favorite athletics programs as well as cheerleading, dance team, and athletics training. Each program has identified needs specific to their program that will accelerate their pursuit of the CATAPULT ideals of winning BIG EAST championships and earning distinction in the classroom and working together in the community. (Please note donations designated to a specific program will NOT count toward season ticket tier requirements).

SEASON REVIEW

A SEASON TO REMEMBER ...

▶ UC, the 2008 BIG EAST Conference Champions, achieved a school-record 11 victories, while posting back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time in school history.

▶ The Bearcats also won the school's first outright conference championship since 1964, and earned the school's first berth in a Bowl Championship Series game, playing against Virginia Tech in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl.

▶ Cincinnati held down a postseason ranking of No. 17 in both polls after the bowl season, tying the top postseason ranking in school history and marking the first time UC was ranked in both end-of-season polls in school history.

▶ UC finished the regular season on a six-game winning streak and captured all three of its rivalry trophies for the first time in the same season – the Victory Bell (Miami [OH]), Keg Of Nails (Louisville), and River City Rivalry (Pittsburgh).

▶ Following the close of the regular season, head coach Brian Kelly was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year for the second straight season. He also earned American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Region 1 Coach of the Year honors, and was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year by Sporting News.

HUBER HITS HIS MARK ...

▶ Punter Kevin Huber put together a bit of history in 2008 as the McNicholas HS product became the first native of Cincinnati to earn First-Team Associated Press all-America honors twice.

▶ Huber also became the first UC player to be named an American Football Coaches Association First-Team all-America honoree. The First-Team all-BIG EAST honoree earned five first-team all-America nods in 2008.

AN ALL-AMERICA NOTE ...

▶ UC had three AP all-America honorees for the first time in school history as Huber was joined by second-team selection Trevor Canfield and third-team honoree Mike Mickens.

UC SHUFFLES QUARTERBACKS TO PERFECTION ...

MICKENS BECOMES ALL-TIME INTERCEPTION LEADER ...

GILYARD HAS RECORD-SETTING CAMPAIGN ...

▶ Wide receiver/kick returner Mardy Gilyard had a breakout year in 2008, catching 81 passes for a school-record 1,276 yards along with a team-high 11 touchdowns.

▶ He also returned 36 kicks for a school-record 994 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

GILYARD & GOODMAN FORM DYNAMIC DUO ...

▶ Mardy Gilyard (1,276) and Dominick Goodman (1,028) both had 1,000-yard receiving campaigns in 2008, the first time a UC duo has eclipsed that mark since Jim O'Brien (1,107) and Tom Rossley (1,072) did it in 1968.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE ...

▶ UC won all of its home games in 2008, the first time since 2000 that the Bearcats went undefeated in Nippert Stadium.

▶ Eight of the Top-12 crowds in Nippert history, including a stadium record of 35,098 against Pittsburgh in 2008, have occurred during the Brian Kelly era.

▶ With an average of 31,964 fans in six home games in 2008, UC established a single-season attendance record, topping the 2007 average of 30,246.

▶ UC received 2008 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Academic Achievement honorable mention accolades for its graduation success rate of over 90 percent for the entering class of 2001.

▶ UC was one of seven programs nationally, including Colorado, Duke, Navy, Notre Dame, Rutgers, and Vanderbilt, to achieve over the 90 percent plateau.

RECORD-SETTING NFL DRAFT FOR UC ...

▶ UC had its best-ever showing in April's NFL Draft when six former players, Connor Barwin (second-Texans), Kevin Huber (fifth-Bengals), DeAngelo Smith (fifth-Cowboys), Brandon Underwood (sixth-Packers), Mike Mickens (seventh-Cowboys), and Trevor Canfield (seventh-Cardinals) were selected.

▶ UC's six overall draft choices were the most in school history, bettering the old mark of five, which had occurred three times— 1998, 1960, and 1947.

▶ The six selections were the most of any BIG EAST school, and the Bearcats were one of nine institutions in the nation with six or more players drafted.

Eastern Kentucky	7
Cincinnati	40

CINCINNATI (AP) - Dustin Grutza made Cincinnati's quarterback transition go smoothly, throwing for three touchdowns and running for another in a 40-7 victory over Eastern Kentucky that eased the Bearcats' biggest concern.

The senior threw touchdown passes of 15 and 47 yards to Mardy Gilyard, who had never caught more than one in a game. The last one came off the same type of play that Mauk ran so well, a play-action rollout that let Gilyard get behind the coverage.

Eastern Kentucky (0-1), the defending Ohio Valley Conference champs, had trouble against a defense that was one of the nation's best in 2007. The Bearcats were missing tackle Terrill Byrd, suspended for the opener for a violation of team rules.

Allan Holland, the OVC's offensive player of the year in 2007, was 12-of-17 for 141 yards, including a 61-yard touchdown pass to Cody Watts after the Colonels trailed 40-0. Sophomore running back Aaron Bradley hurt his right knee in the first half and did not return.

Grutza was the starting quarterback in 2006, but lost his job late that season and never got it back. He led the Bearcats to touchdowns on their first three drives. He left the game after directing a 20-play drive that culminated with his 2-yard touchdown run, making it 33-0 late in the third quarter. Grutza was 21-of-28 for a career-high 296 yards.

The game drew 26,913 fans to a 35,000-seat stadium. The Bearcats drew 20,223 for their opener in 2007, a 59-3 win over Southeast Missouri State.

There was a momentary fright when the Bearcat mascot parachuted into the stadium before the kickoff. The parachute got tangled in the wire that holds up the net behind the goal post, leaving the costumed man dangling. The parachute slid loose after a few seconds, and the mascot landed feet-first, fell to his back and jumped up.

Cincinnati	26
No. 4/4 Oklahoma	52

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) - Sam Bradford overcame two interceptions and threw for a career-best 395 yards and five touchdowns and No. 4 Oklahoma beat Cincinnati 52-26.

Cincinnati's Mardy Gilyard returned a kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown to break one of the longest runback droughts in college football. The last score by the Bearcats (1-1) on a kickoff return came in 1995, and only two schools had gone longer than Cincinnati's 145 games without one. Gilyard finished with a school-record 365 all purpose yards, including 119 yards receiving on seven first-half catches.

It was 28-20 after Gilyard's runback in the third quarter, but DeMarco Murray went untouched on an 11-yard touchdown run and then a Cincinnati fake punt failed and led to an OU touchdown a play later.

The Bearcats lost quarterback Dustin Grutza two drives later to a lower leg injury. He was wheeled off in a cart after being sacked by three Oklahoma players. Grutza went 19-for-29 for 218 yards, throwing for one touchdown and running for another on a 1-yard sneak.

Cincinnati	45

CINCINNATI (AP) - Junior quarterback Tony Pike, making his first career start for the Bearcats, was 20-of-24 passing for 241 yards and three touchdowns in a 45-20 victory over Miami University Saturday in the 113th meeting between the two schools.

It was UC's third-straight win over the RedHawks in the nation's longest non-conference rivalry. The first meeting, on Dec. 8, 1888, was the first collegiate football game played in Ohio.

John Goebel returned the opening kickoff 43 yards, helping set up a 38-yard field goal by Jake Rogers to put Cincinnati ahead 3-0. It was the Bearcats' first field goal attempt this season.

Pike tossed a 30-yard TD pass to Mardy Gilyard, whose diving reception put Cincinnati ahead 17-3. Gilyard had six receptions for 69 yards and a touchdown.

The RedHawks drew closer when junior QB Daniel Raudabaugh threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Armand Robinson to make the score 17-10. Raudabaugh was 28-of-42 for 235 yards and two TDs.

Mike Mickens intercepted a Raudabaugh pass and returned it 72 yards for a touchdown, putting the Bearcats ahead 31-20. It was Mickens' third career interception return for a TD.

Pike's 24-yard touchdown pass to Ben Guidugli made the score 38-20 in the third quarter. Pike closed out the game with an 8-yard strike to Kazeem Alli, the first TD catch of Alli's career.

Cincinnati	17
Akron	15

AKRON, Ohio - Jake Rogers kicked a season-long 48-yard field goal with 7:45 left in the game to help lead the University of Cincinnati to a 17-15 comeback win over Akron, Saturday in the Rubber Bowl.

The Bearcats (3-1), who trailed 9-7 at the half, drove 42 yards in nine plays to set up Rogers' field goal, and Brad Jones intercepted Chris Jacquemain's pass at Akron's 44 with 1:31 remaining to seal the win.

Rogers' field goal, only the second of the season for the Bearcats, was set up by a seven-yard third-down scamper by redshirt freshman quarterback Zach Collaros who was subbing for an injured Tony Pike. Collaros finished the contest with one completion and 18 yards rushing.

Pike injured his non-throwing arm in the fourth quarter and did not return. He was 23-of-34 for a career-high 320 yards and two touchdowns. He's the first UC quarterback to go over the 300-yard mark in 2008.

Mardy Gilyard caught seven passes for a career-high 146 yards and two touchdowns. Included in that total was a third-quarter, 67-yard strike from Pike to Gilyard that gave UC a 14-9 lead with 41 seconds left in the third quarter. The 67-yard pass was a career long for Pike.

Gilyard has scored at least one touchdown in each of UC's first four games this season and surpassed his 2007 total of five touchdowns.

UA's Dennis Kennedy scored on a one-yard touchdown run with 14:13 left in the game to put Akron up 15-14. The five-play, 24-yard drive was set up by a fumble by Gilyard on the UC 24-yard line. Jacquemain connected on 26 of 40 passes for 254 yards, and Deryn Bowser caught 10 for 72 yards.

The Bearcats defense recorded a season-high three sacks. Lamonte Nelms, Adam Hoppel, and Curtis Young all recorded their first sacks of the season. Defensive back Mike Mickens had a career-high 14 tackles, including 12 solo stops. He also added three pass break ups and a tackle for a loss.

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (AP) - Redshirt freshman Chazz Anderson threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score in his college debut to lead Cincinnati to a 33-10 victory over Marshall.

Anderson looked like a calm veteran at times, leading the Bearcats (4-1) on two long scoring drives in the second half to break open a close game. He finished 16-of-26 for 158 yards.

Marshall (3-3) has scored just one touchdown in its past two games. Redshirt freshman Mark Cann had his second straight poor outing. He went 17-of-36 for 178 yards, was intercepted three times and sacked three times.

Midway through the third quarter, Anderson drove Cincinnati 89 yards and found Dominick Goodman in the end zone for the second time, this one from 7 yards out for a 23-10 lead.

After Aaron Webster's interception on Marshall's next series led to Jake Rogers' 40-yard field goal, Anderson capped an 86-yard drive with a 1-yard run with 10:12 left in the game for the final margin.

Cincinnati's Connor Barwin blocked a Kase Whitehead punt out of the end zone for a first-quarter safety. The Bearcats took over at the Marshall 48 after the ensuing free kick and needed just four plays to reach the end zone, with John Goebel scoring on a 21-yard run for a 9-0 lead.

Marshall advanced to the Cincinnati 37 in the second quarter, but Darius Marshall ran in circles and lost 14 yards, Cann was sacked and Whitehead shanked a 17-yard punt.

A penalty wiped out a 25-yard reception by Darius Passmore on Marshall's next possession. Two plays later, Cann's pass bounced off Cody Slate's shoulder and Cedric Tolbert returned the interception 35 yards to the Marshall 14. Anderson then found Goodman in the end zone for a 16-0 lead.

CINCINNATI (AP) - Chazz Anderson ran eight yards for a touchdown on a quarterback draw, and Cincinnati overcame an afternoon of penalties and punts to beat Rutgers 13-10.

Rutgers' touchdown came on a trick play early in the second half. Mike Teel handed off to running back Kordell Young, who ran toward the right sideline and threw a 17-yard pass to uncovered fullback Jack Corcoran.

Cincinnati had 12 penalties for 115 yards - three of them personal fouls - and went 0-for-11 on third downs, resulting in nine punts. With a chance to run out the clock, the Bearcats failed to move the ball and had to punt, giving Rutgers possession at its 12-yard line with 2:10 to go.

The Bearcats were forced to use two redshirt freshmen at quarterback after senior Dustin Grutza and junior Tony Pike got hurt. Anderson edged out Zach Collaros for the job, and has led Cincinnati to a pair of wins. He went 21-of-29 for 239 yards against the Scarlet Knights.

Teel finished 19-of-35 for 175 yards. Young, who missed the last four games with a sore knee, ran 22 times for 78 yards.

Cincinnati's Jake Rogers and Rutgers' San San Te each made a 50-yard field goal in the third quarter, which ended with the Bearcats ahead 13-10. Two personal fouls on Cincinnati set up Te's kick.

EAST HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) - Donald Brown ran for 150 yards and two touchdowns and Connecticut scored 20 fourth-quarter points to beat Cincinnati 40-16.

Brown had just 80 yards late into the fourth quarter before a 54-yard run. He scored from 5 yards to make it 33-16, breaking open what had been a close game.

Tony Pike and Chazz Anderson combined to throw for 259 yards for Cincinnati (5-2, 1-1). Pike started for the first time since breaking his left (non-throwing) arm against Akron on Sept. 27, but only made it through the first half.

He was 10-of-27 for 136 yards with a touchdown and an interception, but Anderson took over after intermission. He was 9-of-20 for 123 yards and two interceptions.

Cincinnati scored less than 2 minutes into the game, after Connor Barwin came up the middle to block his third punt of the season. That set up the first of three field goals from sophomore Jake Rogers, a 29-yarder. The Bearcats' kicker also hit a 54-yarder with the wind at his back just before the half to give the Bearcats a 13-10 lead. The kick was the third longest in Big East history, and the second longest for Rogers, who hit from 55 yards as a freshman against Oregon St.

Pike was sharp in his second game back since he broke his non-passing arm, which is held together by a plate and six screws. A black wrap covered the removable cast that covers a 4-inch scar from the operation and softens the blows. He took several rattling hits and hung in there until the middle of the fourth quarter.

Cincinnati (6-2, 2-1 Big East) was back to normal with an experienced quarterback running the no-huddle, spread offense again. Facing one of the conference's toughest defenses, Pike was 20-of-28 for 281 yards and two touchdowns, including a 1-yard pass to Connor Barwin that put the Bearcats up 24-10 early in the fourth quarter.

On that play, Pike had to take a direct snap from center instead of working out of the shotgun. The force of the snap hurt his left hand, limiting him to one play the rest of the way. Zach Collaros took over for Pike in the fourth quarter and finished it off with running plays.

Junior Matt Grothe came into the game on a surge, throwing at least two touchdown passes in each of the last three games. He had only five interceptions all season, a sign of his dependability. But against the Bearcats, Grothe threw three--two of them deflected--against a defense that pressured him steadily.

Grothe's toughest play was a tackle, pulling down Mike Mickens after a 58-yard interception return. The senior cornerback's 13th career interception set a Cincinnati record and set up its first touchdown.

Grothe was 13-of-31 for 174 yards, but couldn't connect on his two most important throws. He misfired on a fourth-and-goal pass from the 5-yard line with 7:56 left, then had a fourth-down pass batted down in the end zone on the next possession.

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (AP) - Tony Pike threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to Kazeem Alli in overtime to lift the Bearcats to a 26-23 win over No. 20 West Virginia.

West Virginia (6-3, 3-1) scored 13 points and recovered an onside kick in the final 1:11 to force overtime, including Pat McAfee's 52-yard field goal as time ran out. McAfee added a 27-yard field goal on West Virginia's overtime possession.

Cincinnati (7-2, 3-1) managed just three first downs after taking a 20-7 lead into halftime, but answered the field goal with a well-run drive and created a first-place logjam with West Virginia and No. 25 Pittsburgh.

Pike found Dominick Goodman on a 10-yard pass to start UC's overtime possession. A roughing-the-passer penalty on Sidney Glover on the next play moved the ball to the 7. After Jacob Ramsey ran for 5 yards, Pike faked a handoff and flipped to Alli, who was alone in the end zone.

West Virginia turned the ball over on downs twice inside the Cincinnati 10-yard line in the fourth quarter but it was the Bearcats who seemed to self-destruct near the end.

Mardy Gilyard returned the opening kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown. Pike's 4-yard run capped a 77-yard drive and put Cincinnati ahead 20-7 late in the second quarter.

No. 22/22 Cincinnati	28
Louisville	20

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) - Seconds after the gun sounded to end No. 22 Cincinnati's soggy 28-20 win over Louisville, several Bearcats sprinted to the end zone and grabbed the Keg of Nails, the trophy that had tormented them for years.

This was one keg party coach Brian Kelly had no plans of interrupting. Besides, for the surging Bearcats the good times might just be starting.

The victory gives Cincinnati (8-2, 4-1) a half-game lead over idle West Virginia and No. 21 Pittsburgh in the conference title race. Cincinnati beat the Mountaineers last week and host the Panthers on Nov. 22.

Dominick Goodman caught nine passes for 134 yards and a touchdown for UC and John Goebel ran for 77 yards and a score as UC won the Keg of Nails for the first time since 2002.

Quarterback Tony Pike, who took over the starting job earlier this year when senior Dustin Grutza went down with a broken leg, completed 19 of 33 passes in soggy conditions before getting knocked out in the fourth quarter with a bruised sternum.

Enter Grutza, who hadn't played since breaking his right leg during a 52-26 loss to Oklahoma on Sept. 6. Walking onto the field in steady rain, Grutza quickly led the Bearcats on a five-play, 72-yard touchdown drive that gave the Bearcats a 28-20 lead with 6:29 to play.

The key play was a 24-yard pass to Goodman on third-and-5 that moved the ball to the Louisville 43. Goebel did the rest, zipping 37 yards up the left side on the next play before going in from the 6 for the score.

Goodman gave the Bearcats a 21-20 lead with 6:38 to play in the third quarter on a beautiful 23-yard touchdown grab, laying out parallel to the ground and holding onto the ball as he slid across the wet turf in the end zone. The score was the 21st receiving touchdown of Goodman's career, tying the school record held by Jim O'Brien.

No. 20/19 Pittsburgh	21
No. 19/20 Cincinnati	28

CINCINNATI (AP) - The quarterback with the broken arm led No. 19 Cincinnati to the threshold of its first Big East championship.

Tony Pike threw three touchdown passes, each to a different receiver, and the Bearcats took control of the conference by beating 20th-ranked Pittsburgh 28-21, their first win in eight games against the Panthers.

He matched his career high for touchdown passes and ran Cincinnati's no-huddle, spread offense almost flawlessly against the conference's best road team. Pike completed a career-high 26 passes in 32 attempts for 309 yards, and ran several draw plays that exposed his arm to hits.

Bill Stull's 41-yard touchdown pass to Dorin Dickerson cut it to 28-21 with 1:22 to go, but Cincinnati recovered the onside kick and ran the clock down to 18 seconds before turning it over on downs at the 32-yard line. Fans then stormed the field prematurely - a defensive penalty extended the game by 4 seconds following a sack.

They started onto the field prematurely again while Pitt ran a multiple-lateral play, retreated to the sideline and then charged on again when Cincinnati recovered a loose ball to end it.

The Bearcats had a lot of things working for them in a game second-year coach Brian Kelly called the biggest in school history. They had their first capacity crowd in five games, their special red jerseys for the first time in five years, and a defense that has been impeccable in four straight wins over ranked teams.

Pike rolled away from the pressure and made accurate throws, including a 4-yard touchdown pass to Dominick Goodman at the back of the end zone that made it 14-7 just before halftime. It was Goodman's 22nd career touchdown catch, topping former NFL kicker and receiver Jim O'Brien's school record.

CINCINNATI (AP) - Defensive end Connor Barwin raised the gold-topped trophy above his head, then walked through hundreds of Cincinnati fans who got on their tiptoes and reached as high as they could, hoping to touch the keepsake with their fingertips.

There had never been a day quite like this in Cincinnati. The 16th-ranked Bearcats beat Syracuse 30-10, then gathered in the end zone amid tightly-packed fans to hoist the trophy that represents their first Big East title during their fourth season in the league.

The Bearcats (10-2, 6-1) are headed to a BCS bowl for the first time in their history. UC tied the school record with their 10th win, the second straight season they reached the mark.

Syracuse quarterback Cam Dantley finished 6-of-23 for 59 yards with an interception and three sacks. It wasn't all the quarterback's fault. Several times, wide-open receivers dropped well-thrown passes.

Tony Pike took advantage of a defense that gave a lot of cushion, conceding the short pass. Pike, playing with a plate and six screws in his broken left (non-passing) forearm, finished 28-of-44 for 272 yards. Penalties held the Bearcats back - 10 in all, for 107 yards.

The penalties forced Cincinnati to settle for three field goals by Jake Rogers, who had missed five in a row coming into the game. He connected from 45, 38 and 45 yards.

Senior quarterback Dustin Grutza broke his lower right leg in the second game, and Pike broke his arm in the fourth. A redshirt freshman got them through the next two games. With his forearm wrapped in a protective cast, Pike started the past six games, getting better as he went along.

With the game in hand, Grutza came in for Cincinnati's final drive and handed off on every play.

HONOLULU (AP) - Mardy Gilyard caught a 69-yard touchdown pass with 4:42 to play and Cincinnati's defense stepped up as the 13th-ranked Bearcats rallied for 19 straight points in the wild final quarter to beat Hawai'i 29-24.

Gilyard finished with seven catches for 136 yards for the BCS-bound Bearcats (11-2), who won their sixth straight game and a school-record 11th game of the season.

With Hawai'i playing conservatively and trying to protect a 14-point lead, Brandon Underwood sparked the Bearcats' late outburst, intercepting a tipped a pass by Hawai'i's Greg Alexander and returned it 20 yards for a score with 10:27 left.

Alexander was 28-of-40 for 275 yards for the Hawaii Bowl-bound Warriors. He completed a 16-yard TD pass to John Medeiros to give the Warriors a 24-10 lead with 12:36 left with chants of "Overrated! Overrated!" echoing throughout Aloha Stadium.

Hawai'i scored twice in the first 5:04 of the third quarter to take a 17-10 lead.

The game ended at about 10:15 p.m., or 3:15 a.m. Sunday in Ohio, and closed college football's regular season.

75TH FEDEX ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI (AP) - Mardy Gilyard had 255 all-purpose yards and a touchdown catch, but it was not enough as No. 21 Virginia Tech knocked off No. 12 Cincinnati 20-7, in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl.

Gilyard had seven receptions for 158 yards and a touchdown, along with 97 kickoff return yards for Cincinnati (11-3), which had its six-game winning streak snapped. Tony Pike threw for 239 yards and a touchdown, but had his night marred by four interceptions and getting stopped on a fourth-and-goal in the fourth quarter.

The Bearcats took the opening kickoff, sent their spread offense onto the field and made the Hokies look very confused. Pike found Gilyard for a 38-yard pickup on the third play from scrimmage, and they hooked up for a spectacular 15-yard touchdown three plays later to open the scoring.

The Hokies defense held UC to 137 yards, stifled the Bearcats running game (eight carries, 11 yards) over the remainder of the half, and battled their way to a 10-7 lead by intermission.

Darren Evans, the game's MVP, had 28 carries for 153 yards and a touchdown

Terrill Byrd led the UC defense with 11 tackles, including 10 solo stops, four tackles for a loss, and a sack. Brandon Underwood had six tackles, including a sack and an interception.

THE BIG EAST CONFERENCE

Another year, another successful season of BIG EAST football.

Keeping with the recent trend of sustained excellence, the 2008 season saw the BIG EAST continue to sit at the forefront of major college football.

Last year alone, BIG EAST teams combined to win 33 nonconference games — the second-highest total in league history — and won at a 70.2-percent clip outside the conference.

In addition, the league was a combined 4-2 in bowl games, marking the third straight season in which the league had a winning record in the postseason.

In fact, under its current configuration, which has been in place for four seasons, the BIG EAST has enjoyed its most successful nonconference run in league history. BIG EAST teams have gone a combined 122-51 in that span (70.5 percent), which stands as the best four-year stretch in the first 19 years of the league.

The BIG EAST's greatest strength under its current configuration has been its depth. Five of the eight teams that comprise the football membership have won at least a share of the conference title in the last three years (Cincinnati, Connecticut, Louisville, Syracuse, West Virginia). The three other teams (Pittsburgh, Rutgers, USF) all have been ranked in the top 25 in the past two seasons.

The conference crowned a first-time champion for the third consecutive season as Cincinnati went 6-1 in the BIG EAST to win its first outright conference title since 1964.

The final national polls listed the Bearcats at No. 17 while four other BIG EAST schools received votes. Individual success also followed with four players – Connecticut running back Donald Brown, Pittsburgh linebacker Scott McKillop, USF defensive end George Selvie, Cincinnati punter Kevin Huber – earning first team all-America status.

Recognition at the next level followed as the BIG EAST had 27 players chosen in the 2009 NFL Draft — the second-highest total in league history. All eight schools had at least one player chosen in the first four rounds of the draft.

Under the leadership of longtime commissioner Michael Tranghese, the BIG EAST Conference's entrance into football was announced Feb. 5, 1991. The league gained instant credibility with its level of excellence on the field and with its television and bowl relationships. The BIG EAST has been a charter member of each of the major bowl agreements with the major conferences, beginning with the Bowl Coalition in 1992, followed by the Bowl Alliance in 1995 and the Bowl Championship Series in 1998.

Since its birth, the BIG EAST has been a national power both on and off the field. The BIG EAST has been a frequent contender for the national championship. Eight times in the league's 19 seasons, a BIG EAST squad has played for a claim to the national crown in a postseason game.

The conference begins a new era in 2009 as John Marinatto becomes the BIG EAST Commissioner. Marinatto was at the forefront of the league's reorganization efforts which have made the conference as strong as it has ever been.

The 2009 season will mark the second year of a six-year arrangement with ESPN that gives the BIG EAST unrivaled exposure on ABC television and the ESPN family of networks. ESPN, ESPN2 or ABC will carry a minimum of 19 BIG EAST home games each season, marking the highest guaranteed total on ESPN and ABC in league history. Championship Saturday in December will include one game either on ESPN and another on ESPN2. At least four BIG EAST games will be featured on ESPN's Thursday-night package each year.

In addition, ESPN Regional will continue to produce and distribute its BIG EAST Network Game of the Week package to a nationally syndicated audience, reaching more than 30 million homes. Most of these games also will be available as part of the ESPN GamePlan subscription service. Finally, a minimum of five home games will be carried on ESPNU.

Extensive television exposure and the BIG EAST have been synonymous terms. For football, the league established its own regional television package in 1991 before it had played a game. The BIG EAST Television Network immediately was the largest regional college football network in the country.

The BIG EAST has always aligned itself with prestigious bowl games. The league is one of the original founders of the Bowl Championship Series and continues to be one of only six conferences that receives an automatic annual bid.

The BIG EAST Conference champion earns the league's automatic BCS bid. The BCS – which enters its 11th season in 2009-10 – is a five-game arrangement for postseason college football that is designed to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship game and to create exciting and competitive matchups between eight other highly regarded teams in four other BCS games.

If the BIG EAST champion finishes No. 1 or No. 2 in the final BCS standings, then that team will earn a spot in the BCS National Championship Game. Otherwise, the league champion will compete in one of the four remaining BCS bowl games – the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl, Allstate Sugar Bowl or the Rose Bowl. Each bowl hosts two games once every four years - its traditional game plus the National Championship Game approximately one week later.

In a first-of-its-kind collaboration among Division I conferences and football bowl partners, the BIG EAST and Big 12 Conferences — along with Notre Dame — forged a bowl partnership beginning in 2006. This agreement assures both BCS conferences' or Notre Dame's participation in the Konica Minolta Gator Bowl and Brut Sun Bowl over a four-year period. The Konica Gator Bowl or Brut Sun Bowl can pick a BIG EAST team after the league's representative to the Bowl Championship Series has been determined. The Atlantic Coast Conference will provide the opposition in the Konica Minolta

Gator Bowl (CBS) and the Pac-10 Conference will participate in the Brut Sun Bowl (CBS).

The Konica Minolta Gator Bowl has the first selection at the conclusion of each season. During the four years of the deal, the BIG EAST (or Notre Dame) will send a team to both the Gator Bowl and the Sun Bowl twice.

The Meineke Car Care Bowl is now in its eighth year with the BIG EAST Conference. The Meineke Car Care Bowl, which is played in Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte, N.C., picks after the Konica Minolta Gator Bowl or Brut Sun Bowl.

The BIG EAST Conference also aligned itself with the International Bowl in Toronto, Ontario, and the PapaJohns.com Bowl in Birmingham, Ala., beginning in 2006. In the International Bowl, the BIG EAST representative faces a team from the Mid-American Conference. In the PapaJohns.com Bowl, the opponent is from the Southeastern Conference.

The 2008 season saw another addition to the BIG EAST's bowl picture with the introduction of the St. Petersburg Bowl at Tropicana Field. The St. Petersburg Bowl will be televised on ESPN and will pair the BIG EAST representative against an opponent from Conference USA.

The addition of the St. Petersburg Bowl gives BIG EAST teams access to at least six postseason games each year.

Cincinnati has played the Kentucky Wildcats 33 times, winning the last time the two teams played by a score of 24-3 in 1996.

UC and Miami (OH) have played 113 times in a series that began in 1888. The Bearcats defeated the Redhawks last year, 45-20.

BOWL HISTORY

While the NCAA Official Football Records recognizes the Rose Bowl, started in 1902, as being the first collegiate bowl game, former UC athletic director Bill Schwarberg points to a bowl appearance by Cincinnati that pre-dates the Rose Bowl by five years. Citing a record in the University's McMicken Review, Schwarberg indicated that following the 1897 season, Cincinnati was in fact the first institution from Ohio to make a trip south to play in a postseason game.

Cincinnati posted a 7-1-1 record that year, which included a 34-0 win over Ohio State. The lone team to beat UC was the powerful Carlisle Indians.

Shortly after Thanksgiving a travel party of 14, which included the substitutes and the coach and manager, departed for New Orleans to play a game there on New Year's Day. Hosted by the Southern Athletic Club, accounts of the game have UC winning with ease by a score of 16-0.

At a victory party that evening, players from Louisiana State challenged the Bearcats to a game the next day in Baton Rouge. UC accepted the challenge and overwhelmed the LSU team, 28-0. If this was indeed UC's first bowl game, it was 49 years before the Bearcats again experienced postseason play.

The post-World War II influx of veterans into colleges rejuvenated college athletics, and with that came a surge of new bowls. Cincinnati capped a successful 1946 season with a trip to the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas. There, the Bearcats defeated Virginia Tech, 18-6.

UC made appearances in the Glass Bowl in Toledo in 1949 and returned to the Sun Bowl at the end of the 1950 campaign.

After 47 years without a bowl appearance, Cincinnati's drought was broken when the Bearcats played in the inaugural Humanitarian Bowl in Boise, Idaho in 1997.

With Conference USA developing alliances with five bowls, the Bearcats made three straight bowl appearances in 2000, 2001 and 2002—the first two in the Motor City Bowl in Detroit and the third in the New Orleans Bowl.

In 2004, UC was selected to represent Conference USA in the PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl, the teams' fourth bowl appearance in five years. UC defeated Marshall, 32-14, in that contest.

In 2006, Cincinnati earned its first BIG EAST Conference bowl appearance after knocking off Connecticut in the season finale. In unusual circumstances following Mark Dantonio and his staff's departure to Michigan State before the bowl game, UC hired Brian Kelly from Central Michigan who came in and in just 34 days prepared UC and defeated Western Michigan University, 27-24, in the inaugural International Bowl in Toronto, Ontario.

Following an impressive 9-3 regular season in 2007 - which included three wins against top-25 opponents, the Bearcats had the opportunity to face former Conference USA foe Southern Mississippi in the Papajohns.com Bowl, in Birmingham, Ala. Victory number 10, a 31-21 win at Legion Field, marked just the second 10-win season in Bearcats history (UC's 1951 squad finished 10-1). In addition, the Bearcats were ranked No. 17 in the final AP poll, the first time in school history.

On the heels of a school-record 11 wins in 2009 and UC's first BIG EAST Championship, the Bearcats earned a spot in the 75th FedEx Orange bowl, their first New Year's Day Bowl appearance since 1951 against Virginia Tech from the Atlantic Coast Conference.

NO. 21 VIRGINIA TECH 20, NO. 12 CINCINNATI 7

Mardy Gilyard had 255 all-purpose yards and a touchdown catch, but it was not enough as No. 21 Virginia Tech knocked off No. 12 Cincinnati, 20-7, in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl.

Gilyard had seven receptions for 158 yards and a touchdown, along with 97 kickoff return yards for Cincinnati (11-3), which had its six-game winning streak snapped. Tony Pike threw for 239 yards and a touchdown, but had his night marred by four interceptions and getting stopped on a fourth-and-goal in the fourth quarter.

The Bearcats took the opening kickoff, sent their spread offense onto the field, and made the Hokies look very confused. Pike found Gilyard for a 38-yard pickup on the third play from scrimmage, and they hooked up for a spectacular 15-yard touchdown three plays later to open the scoring.

Facing a third-and-9 from the right hash, Pike waited before lofting a fade to the far left of the end zone. Gilyard took off on a sprint, made a diving catch as he sailed out of bounds and managed to just barely drag his right toe on the turf painted in Virginia Tech's colors for a 7-0 Cincinnati lead.

The Hokies defense held UC to 137 yards, stifled the Bearcats running game (eight carries, 11 yards) over the remainder of the half, and battled their way to a 10-7 lead by intermission. Darren Evans, the game's MVP, had 28 carries for 153 yards and a touchdown

Terrill Byrd led the UC defense with 11 tackles, including 10 solo stops, four tackles for a loss, and a sack. Brandon Underwood had six tackles, including a sack and an interception.

BOWL HISTORY

NO. 20 CINCINNATI 31, SOUTHERN MISS 21

Ben Mauk shrugged off mistakes and Southern Miss defenders alike, and helped No. 20 Cincinnati make one more entry into an impressive season. The hard-to-tackle Mauk passed for 334 yards and four touchdowns, and DeAngelo Smith intercepted three passes, leading the Bearcats to a 31-21 victory over Southern Miss in the Papajohns.com Bowl.

The victory gave Cincinnati (10-3) its second 10-win season and first since 1951, while virtually assuring a spot in the final rankings for the first time.

Mauk, the game's most valuable player, completed 30-of-52 passes and overcame three interceptions to become only the third Bearcats player to have a 3,000-yard passing season.

Mauk, who also rushed for 41 yards and frequently broke loose from defenders to make plays, threw three touchdown passes during an 8-minute span extending into the second half.

Cincinnati stopped punter Britt Barefoot on a fake punt on fourth-and-1 from his own 29 and Mauk hit Earnest Jackson for a 29-yard TD strike on the next play for a 21-7 lead. Jeremy Young answered with a 1-yard scoring run for Southern Miss before Mauk struck again with a 10-yarder to Antwuan Giddens and set up a 22-yard field goal by Jake Rogers in the final seconds of the third quarter to put the Bearcats up 31-14.

Young cut into the lead again with a 5-yard touchdown pass to Chris Johnson but Southern Miss could not recover an onside kick or convert a fourth-and-1 play on its next possession.

Smith's third pick ended any hope of a comeback in the final minutes. Dominick Goodman caught seven passes for 95 yards and a pair of scores for UC. Connor Barwin (86 yards) and Antwuan Giddens (64) also had seven catches apiece.

CINCINNATI 27, W. MICHIGAN 24

2007 International Bowl • Jan. 6, 2007 • Toronto, Canada

Kevin Lovell's 33-yard field goal with 6:11 remaining provided the winning margin for Cincinnati and Western Michigan's 51-yard field goal try with 1:26 left fell short.

Dominick Goodman was named the game's Most Outstanding Player. Butler Benton led UC rushing attack with 62 of the team's combind 126 yards against the Broncos—a defense that was ranked fifth nationally defending the run.

John Bowie put UC on the scoreboard first when he gathered in a tipped pass and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. On Cincinnati's next drive, Davila connected on a 21-yard TD toss to Goodman. Goodman later hauled in a second touchdown pass in the second quarter.

CINCINNATI 32, MARSHALL 14

2004 PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl • Dec. 23, 2004 • Fort Worth, Texas

Linebacker Tyjuan Hagler started things by blocking a punt one minute into the game, which was returned by Antwan Giddens for a touchdown. Hagler forced a fumble to set up one of three Kevin Lovell field goals, recorded a sack and had a team-high seven tackles to earn a spot on Football News' all-bowl team.

Trent Cole and Andre Frazier each recorded sacks while leading the defensive pursuit from their end positions. Cole also blocked a punt for a safety. UC's defense held the Thundering Herd to 134 total yards, minus-3 yards rushing.

Gino Guidugli capped his stellar career with his guttiest performance. Playing with a broken hand, Guidugli completed 24-of-36 passes for 231 yards and staked the Bearcats to their lead with a pair of second-quarter TD tosses. Guidugli was to be limited to shotgun snaps, but with the running game sputtering, he moved under center in the second quarter, a move which energized the offense. UC gained 168 yards on the ground, 62 by Richard Hall who capped his senior season with 1,000 yards. Hannibal Thomas caught nine passes for 102 yards to top the 1,000-yard mark in receiving.

UC jumped out to a 10-0 lead on Antwuan Giddens return of Hagler's blocked punt and Lovell's 23-yard field goal. The Herd retaliated with two late first quarter TD's, the second on a 32-yard interception return of an errant Guidugli pass, the senior's lone miscue of the night. The Bearcat defense shut down Marshall after that, allowing just 52 yards in total offense the remaining three quarters.

Guidugli capped scoring drives of 13 and 11 plays with TD passes of 15 yards to Brent Celek and eight yards to Earnest Jackson to give UC a 28-10 lead before the half. The Bearcats coasted from there.

BOWL HISTORY

NORTH TEXAS 24, CINCINNATI 19

Kevin Galbreath rushed for 130 yards and a touchdown to earn MVP honors as North Texas defeated Cincinnati, 24-19, in the second annual New Orleans Bowl.

After Cincinnati took an early 7-0 lead on a six-yard pass from Gino Guidugli to Tye Keith, North Texas ran off 24 straight points to build a 24-7 advantage.

Patrick Cobbs put the Mean Green ahead for good, 10-7, when he broke free for a 27-yard TD run with 10:53 left in the half. UNT extended the lead to 17-3 at the intermission when Jeremy Pearl returned a Guidugli interception 20 yards for a TD.

Galbreath finished the UNT scoring when he broke loose for a 35-yard TD run on the opening drive of the second half.

The Bearcats rallied as Jonathan Ruffin connected on field goals of 29 and 33 yards, the second allowing him to break his own school record with 13 straight field goals made. Franklin Callicott pulled UC to within 24-19 when he stripped Cobbs of the ball in the backfield and raced 43 yards for a touchdown with 5:15 left. Guidugli's two-point conversion pass fell incomplete.

Cincinnati would not get the chance to come any closer as North Texas used a time-consuming ground game to key an 11-play drive to run out the clock.

Guidugli led the UC offense by completing 19-of-34 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown but the sophomore threw a career-high five interceptions.

DeMarco McCleskey rushed 23 times for 85 yards to set the UC season rushing record with 1,361 yards. Jon Olinger's four catches for 107 yards raising his season receiving total to 1,114 yards, allowed the senior to break Jim O'Brien's 34-year old record of 1,107 receiving yards.

TOLEDO 23, CINCINNATI 16

Tavares Bolden was 14-for-28 for 135 yards and ran for 99 yards, which helped the Rockets set a Motor City Bowl-record with 322 yards rushing. Toledo held Cincinnati to just 13 yards on the ground, also a record in the five-year history of the bowl.

Taylor's 24-yard touchdown capped an 80-yard drive, which he sparked with three carries for 52 yards. The third-team all-America selection had a bowl-record 31 carries.

After Todd France gave Toledo a 3-0 lead on a 28-yard field goal with 9:24 left in the first quarter, the Bearcats ran off 13 straight points to take a 13-3 halftime lead. Jonathan Ruffin sandwiched field goals from 29 and 46 yards, the latter coming as time expired in the first half, around a 28-yard Gino Guidugli touchdown pass to Tim Walker.

Toledo pulled even after three quarters as France connected on a 42-yard field goal and Tavares Bolden scored on a 28-yard run with 1:44 left in the third. Both teams put together long drives on the first two possessions of the fourth quarter but settled for field goals.

The Rockets went 76 yards on 14 plays over five minutes, but stalled at Cincinnati's 13. France's 30-yard field goal gave them a 16-13 lead with 9:42 left.

The Bearcats then stalled at Toledo's 8 after driving 73 yards. Ruffin's 25-yard kick tied the game with 6:26 to go. The Rockets then drove 80 yards in seven plays with Taylor breaking loose up the middle for the winning score with 3:23 left.

MARSHALL 25, CINCINNATI 14

Byron Leftwich threw for one touchdown and rushed for another to help Marshall rally for 16 second-half points to defeat Cincinnati, 25-14, in the Motor City Bowl.

Marshall scored a pair of third quarter touchdowns, a one-yard run by Leftwich on its opening drive, and a Frank Wallace four-yard run with 7:24 left.

The Cincinnati offense, which ran up 181 yards of total offense in the first half, struggled after intermission, failing to score on any of its six possessions.

Leftwich paced the Thundering Herd, completing 17-of-30 passes for 221 yards while UC's Deontey Kenner connected on 19-of-39 passes for 189 yards and a pair of interceptions.

BOWL HISTORY

CINCINNATI 35, UTAH STATE 19

1997 Humanitarian Bowl • Dec. 21, 1997 • Boise, Idaho

Chad Plummer threw for a touchdown and ran for another score and Cornelius Bonner caught two touchdown passes as Cincinnati defeated Utah State, 35-19, in the inaugural Humanitarian Bowl.

Deontey Kenner, who rotated at quarterback with Plummer, completed 10-of-16 passes for 124 yards and one touchdown for Cincinnati, which had not played in the postseason since the 1951 Sun Bowl.

Plummer, voted the game's Most Valuable Player, completed 5-of-10 passes for 61 yards while rushing 15 times for 53 yards.

Bonner, who had 48 yards on four receptions, caught touchdown passes of 14-yards each from Plummer and Kenner as the Bearcats raced to a 21-0 halftime lead.

Orlando Smith led Cincinnati in rushing with 82 yards on 15 carries while the Bearcats held a 265-76 advantage in rushing yards while holding the ball for more than 42 minutes.

Following a fumble by Utah State's Demario Brown early in the second half, the Bearcats went 57 yards in seven plays, capped by Plummer's 15-yard scoring run around right end that made it 28-0.

Just 1:03 later, Utah State's Steve Smith turned a five-yard pass from Matt Sauk into a spectacular 75-yard touchdown as he broke tackles and outran the secondary. But Cincinnati answered with a seven-yard scoring run by Orlando Smith on a screen pass that was ruled a lateral.

Melvin Blue's three-yard TD run capped an 80-yard drive in just 1:54, but the Aggies missed the extra point and trailed 35-13 with 29 seconds left in the third quarter.

The Aggies got themselves back in the game two minutes into the fourth quarter. Cincinnati punter Doug Johnson could not handle a high snap and freshman linebacker Brent Passey picked up the loose ball and went 10 yards for the score.

W. TEXAS A&M 14, CINCINNATI 13

1951 Sun Bowl • Jan. 1, 1951 • El Paso, Texas

A missed extra point in the second quarter proved to be the difference as West Texas A&M edged Cincinnati, 14-13, in the 16th annual Sun Bowl.

The Buffaloes took a 7-0 lead three minutes into the second quarter. Bill Cross capped off a 57-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown run.

Cincinnati used the passing game to come back. On a 68-yard scoring drive, quarterback Gene Rossi completed a 36-yard pass to Joe Benzinger and short passes to Dick Jarvis and Dan McKeever. When Dan McKeever was injured on a running play, he was replaced by his brother, Tom, who carried three straight plays, the last a three-yard touchdown.

Cincinnati claimed its first lead, 13-7, when Rossi threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Bob Stratton and Bill Shalonsky added the extra point. A crucial play in the 69-yard drive came on third down at the UC 43 when Rossi completed a 22-yard pass to Kelly and a West Texas A&M penalty moved the ball to the Buffalo 20.

West Texas A&M used a trick play on a fake punt to score the game-winning touchdown. Faced with a fourth and long, punter Frank Wise moved under center, took the snap and lateraled to the right to quarterback Gene Mayfield. Mayfield completed a pass to Cross at the UC 40 and Cross broke several tackles to finish the 62-yard touchdown pass. Roy Lee Dunn added the extra point to give West Texas A&M a 14-13 lead.

West Texas A&M drove 79-yards to the UC one but the Bearcat defense held on a fourth down play. With time running out, the Bearcats moved to the Buffaloes' 27 on a long pass to Kelly, but the game ended when Rossi was sacked on successive plays.

CINCINNATI 33, TOLEDO 13

Bob Stratton scored twice to help guide the 1949 Bearcats to a 33-13 victory over Toledo in the Glass Bowl.

Cincinnati used a strong defense and solid play on special teams to dominate Toledo, 33-13, in the fifth annual Glass Bowl.

After a scoreless first quarter the Bearcats recorded a safety when Jack Tracy trapped Rocket back Emerson Cole in the end zone. Following a Toledo fumble, UC's Bob Stratton scored the first of his two touchdowns on a 10-yard run. He later added a 29-yard TD early in the third quarter.

Gene Gibson showed his open-field running skills with a pair of touchdowns. He returned a punt 76-yards in the third quarter to give the Bearcats a 27-6 lead. On the next possession, Don Jansen intercepted a Toledo pass and pitched it to Gibson who returned it 80 yards for the score.

UC outgained Toledo, 330-286 on offense, but owned a lopsided advantage on special teams. The Bearcats returned punts, kickoffs and interceptions for 258 yards while the Rockets managed only 97 return yards.

UC BOWL RECORDS

CINCINNATI 18, VIRGINIA TECH 6
1947 Sun Bowl • Jan. 1, 1947 • El Paso, Texas

Both teams struggled offensively in the first half, due largely in part to the three inches of snow that fell in El Paso the day before the game.

The Bearcat offense dominated play in the second half. UC outrushed the Gobblers, 369 to 34 for the game, scoring all three touchdowns on the ground.

After a scoreless first half, Cincinnati took the second half kickoff and drove 75 yards for the game's first score, a 13-yard run by sophomore Harold Johnson. After holding Virginia Tech to just three plays on offense in the next possession, the Bearcats regained possession and drove 52 yards for the second score, taking a 12-0 lead on junior fullback Hugo Sabato's one-yard run.

Virginia Tech cut the lead to 12-6 early in the fourth quarter when Ralph Beard capped off a 55-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown run.

Johnson emerged as the defensive leader for the Bearcats, intercepting a pass in the end zone late in the third quarter to stop a potential game-tying drive.

With time running out, Tech drove into Cincinnati territory, before Johnson made his second interception, returning it deep into Gobbler territory. Three plays later, Don McMillan scored on a quarterback sneak from three yards to provide the final margin.

Cincinnati finished the season with a 9-2 record, including wins over defending Big Nine champions Indiana and Michigan State.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The University of Cincinnati Sports Communications Office is ready to assist you in every way possible to make the experience of covering UC Athletics productive and rewarding. For this reason, we have developed policies and procedures which will require cooperation on the part of the media. Not complying with these policies will result in the refusal of credentials.

SCHEDULING INTERVIEWS
All interviews with student-athletes and coaches MUST be initiated through the Sports Communications Office by contacting the sports communications representative assigned to that sport. Media are not to call coaches or student-athletes directly. We ask for a 24- hour notice for interviews unless otherwise notified.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Individual game credentials must be requested prior to Tuesday morning of a normal game week. For Friday home games, requests must be in by Monday morning.

Credential procedures and language, including any media restrictions in connection with game information taking the form of film, video, digital video recordings, blogging, etc., will accompany all credentials. Media must agree to adhere to these policies in order to cover an event.

WEB VIDEO CONTENT
Per UC's multimedia contract with IMG College, UC coaches, players, and administrators are not permitted to take part in one-on-one interviews or feature stories that will be made available exclusively for internet distribution.

INTERNET POLICIES

BIG EAST TELECONFERENCE
The BIG EAST coaches are featured on a weekly teleconference each Monday, starting at 11:10 a.m. (ET) during the season. To access the teleconference, contact the BIG EAST Conference at (401) 453-0660. A replay is available each Monday beginning at 5 p.m.

BIG EAST SATELLITE FEED
The BIG EAST will begin its weekly satellite feed on Wednesday, Sept. 9. The feed will be available each Wednesday afternoon during the season, concluding on Nov. 28. Approximately three and a half minutes of highlights and interviews are available for Cincinnati and Coach Brian Kelly. For satellite coordinates and scheduled times for the feed, contact the BIG EAST Conference Office at 401-453-0660.

TUESDAY PRESS CONFERENCE
During game weeks on Tuesdays at noon, head coach Brian Kelly and selected players will participate in a press conference in the Goin Team Room located on the second floor of the Richard E. Lindner Center. The players will take questions at noon, followed by Coach Kelly at approximately 12:15 p.m.

WEEKLY RELEASE
During the season, information about the University of Cincinnati football team is updated on a weekly basis and made available at www.GoBEARCATS.com.

Media can access the complete release, including statistics, by utilizing Adobe Acrobat PDF files. To receive the document via email, please send a request to Ryan Koslen (ryan.koslen@uc.edu).

PRACTICES
Regular-season practice times and the approximate time for the conclusion of those workouts will be emailed to the media prior to the beginning of each week. Changes to the practice schedule will be sent via email as needed. Policies for preseason practice and spring practice will be released just prior to the start of those sessions.

During regular-season practices, unless otherwise noted, still and television photographers will be allowed to shoot the first 20 minutes (first four periods) of practice. At the conclusion of practice, head coach Brian Kelly will address the media on the field.

First-year players, including freshmen and transfers, will be made available to the media only after they have made a significant contribution or at the coach's discretion. Veteran players and assistant coaches will be made available for brief interviews following practice and must be requested through a member of the sports communications staff. Media are not to personally approach student-athletes or coaches unless otherwise instructed.

All interviews following practice MUST be conducted on the practice field. Post practice interviews for print are to be brief (10 minutes max) and will be non-exclusive, group interviews. One-on-one electronic interviews are permitted but must be brief.

CREDENTIAL PICK-UP
Credentials can be picked up beginning two hours before the game at the will call windows located on the west side of Fifth Third Arena. All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification.

ENTERING THE PRESS BOX
An elevator to the press box is located at the 50-yard line on the west concourse of Nippert Stadium below the press box. A media credential is required for entry to the elevator.

PRESS BOX LEVELS
The Nippert Stadium press box has three levels. The first level is for newspaper, radio, and television reporters. The middle level is for guests of the university. The upper level is for video crews, radio, and television outlets broadcasting the game, as well as coaches.

PRESS BOX SERVICES
A media packet, including a game program, game notes, depth charts, and statistics, is available to each media member. A meal is provided before each game. During the game, quickie statistics are distributed after each quarter. Complete play-by-play, scoring summary, and individual and team statistics are distributed following the game.

In accordance with Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) guidelines, no cheering is allowed in the media areas of the press box in order to provide a proper working environment.

INTERNET ACCESS
Wireless internet is available in the press box at Nippert Stadium. Members of the UC Sports Communications staff will be available to assist you. There is no access fee.

TELEPHONES
Telephone lines are available in the Nippert Stadium press box on a first-come, first-serve, basis for media members. Media representatives requiring their own phone lines should contact Dan Krone, Assistant Director of Athletics for Facilities and Operations at (513) 556-3541 at least a week prior to the game.

PROFESSIONAL SCOUTS

Seats in the press box will be available to professional scouts on a first-come, first-serve basis based on availability. If seats are not available in the press box, scouts will be provided a reserved ticket along with a press box pass that will allow them access to the press area for statistics, notes, and food. Requests should be made through the UC Sports Communications office well in advance of the game to improve availability.

SIDELINE PASSES

The University of Cincinnati follows NCAA guidelines regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photographers and videographers are permitted to shoot between the 23-yard lines and the goal lines on both sidelines, or anywhere behind the restraining line in the end zone.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The UC locker room will remain closed following all football games. Media should request players through Ryan Koslen for the media room during the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to enter the field (for home games) late in the fourth quarter but will not be allowed to conduct interviews with UC football players on the field (home or away). Only the originating television and radio networks will be allowed to conduct interviews on the field.

Coach Kelly will address the media in Room 3000 of the Recreational Sports Center following home games. Players will be brought into the interview area as soon as possible.

Postgame availability on the road will be determined on gameday. Please see football contact Ryan Koslen for details.

RADIO & TELEVISION

RADIO

University of Cincinnati fans have had no trouble tracking the Bearcats due to their radio network.

700 WLW begins its 17th season as the Bearcats' broadcast partner. The station's 50,000-watt signal can project UC games to 38 states and a third of Canada, and worldwide via 700WLW.com, making it possible for UC football fans to hear every game.

WLW augments the broadcast coverage with pregame and postgame programming. Additionally, head coach Brian Kelly is featured on an hour-long call-in show each week from the original Montgomery Inn, allowing Cincinnati fans to meet the coach and ask their questions up close and personal.

ON-AIR TALENT

DAN HOARD – Play-by-Play
Dan Hoard enters his 10th year as the play-by-play voice. Hoard has been a focal point of Bearcats broadcasts since coming to Cincinnati from Syracuse, N.Y. in 1995. He served as UC's radio voice in 1996 and handled the play-by-play on the local television football and basketball telecasts from 1996-2000. He took over the radio play-by-play duties in 2000.

Dan Hoard

JIM KELLY, JR. – Color Analyst
Jim Kelly, a standout receiver for the Bearcats in the mid-1970's, returns for his 19th season as an analyst. Jim is the son of the late Jim Kelly, Sr., who was associated with UC for over 40 years as an athlete, assistant coach, and administrator. Kelly, Jr. followed in his father's footsteps as an athlete and started three seasons as a wide receiver for UC in the mid-1970's.

Jim Kelly, Jr.

TOM GELEHRTER – Sideline Reporter
Tom Gelehrter is in his third year as the sideline reporter for UC football broadcasts. UC's Manager of New Media and Broadcasting, Gelehrter is a 2002 graduate of Syracuse University and has worked for the past six years as a college sports broadcaster at both Cincinnati and the University of Akron. A Cleveland native, Gelehrter also hosts Bearcats Sports Weekly with Brian Kelly and Mick Cronin on FOX Sports Ohio.

Tom Gelehrter

MO EGGER – Host and Engineer
Mo Egger is the host, producer, and engineer on UC broadcasts. He is the morning sports anchor on 700 WLW, and hosts afternoons on 1530 Homer. A New Jersey native and a graduate of the University of Dayton, he has been with Clear Channel since 1997 and has worked on UC broadcasts since 2001. Egger is also host of the Brian Kelly and Mick Cronin radio shows on 700 WLW.

TELEVISION

When it comes to television, the University of Cincinnati has one of the most extensive television packages in the country as its partners cover not only the state of Ohio, but the nation.

The 2009 season marks the second year of a six-year arrangement with ESPN that gives the BIG EAST unrivaled exposure on ABC and the ESPN family of networks. ESPN, ESPN2, or ABC will carry a minimum of 19 BIG EAST home games each season, marking the highest guaranteed total on ESPN and ABC in league history. Championship Saturday in December will include one ESPN game and another on ESPN2 and at least four BIG EAST games will be featured on ESPN's Thursday-night package each year of the agreement.

In addition, the BIG EAST Network, produced by ESPN Regional Television (ERT) will continue to distribute its Game of the Week package to a nationally syndicated audience, reaching more than 30 million homes. Most of the ERT games also will be available as part of the ESPN GamePlan subscription service. Finally, a minimum of five home games will be carried on ESPNU.

UC is in the second year of a multi-year agreement with FOX Sports Ohio that makes the network the exclusive regional cable home of UC football. Programming includes game telecasts, preseason and postseason specials, and a weekly coaches show titled 'Bearcats Sports Weekly With Brian Kelly'.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES ...

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) is a five-game arrangement for post-season college football that is designed to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship game and to create exciting and competitive matchups between eight other highly regarded teams in four other games.

The bowl games participating are the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl, Rose Bowl, Allstate Sugar Bowl and the BCS National Championship Game which will be played each year at one of the bowl sites.

The BCS is managed by the commissioners of the 11 NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision ("FBS") (formerly Division I-A) conferences, the director of athletics at the University of Notre Dame, and representatives of the bowl organizations. The conferences are Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Conference USA, Mid-American, Mountain West, Sun Belt, Pacific 10, Southeastern and Western Athletic.

The conference commissioners and the Notre Dame athletics director make decisions regarding all BCS issues, in consultation with an athletics directors advisory group and subject to the approval of a presidential oversight committee whose members represent all 120 FBS programs.

The five BCS games are part of the overall bowl structure. All bowl games provide meaningful season-ending opportunities to teams.

As one conference commissioner said, "the celebration that occurs among the student-athletes, coaching staff and fans at the end of each bowl games is an indication of the importance of all bowl games."

The BCS places great premium on the regular season of college football. Football weekends are an important ingredient in the overall college experience-going well beyond simply what occurs in the athletics department. A significant amount of the revenue that supports all athletic programs is generated by regular-season football. And so it is of great importance that the regular season remains strong and vibrant.

The top two teams were matched in bowl games infrequently before the BCS, when conferences were contractually obligated to certain games and there was no flexibility to attempt to match the top teams.

The BCS conferences have a contract with Fox Sports to televise the Fiesta, Orange and Sugar Bowls through 2010 and the National Championship Games through 2009. ABC has an agreement to continue to televise the 2010 National Championship Game and the Rose Bowl through 2014.

AUTOMATIC QUALIFICATION
1. The top two teams in the final BCS Standings will play in the national championship game.
2. The champions of the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and Southeastern Conferences automatically qualify for BCS games each year.
3. One team from among the champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference, the Sun Belt Conference, or the Western Athletic Conference automatically qualify for a BCS game if either: A. Such team is ranked in the top 12 of the final BCS Standings, or, B. Such team is ranked in the top 16 of the final BCS Standings and its ranking in the final BCS Standings is higher than that of a champion of a conference that has an annual automatic berth in one of the BCS bowls.
4. Notre Dame qualifies automatically for a BCS bowl if it is in the top eight of the final BCS Standings.
5. If any of the 10 slots remain open after application of provisions 1 through 4, and an at-large team from a conference with an annual automatic berth for its champion is ranked No. 3 in the final BCS Standings, that team shall become an automatic qualifier.
6. If any of the 10 slots remain open after application of provisions 1 through 5, and if Step No. 5 has not been applied and an at-large team from a conference with an annual automatic berth for its champion is ranked No. 4 in the final BCS Standings, that team shall become an automatic qualifier.
7. If any slots remain unfilled after the placement of all teams qualifying for an automatic berth, then the bowls shall choose their participants from the "pool of eligible teams" (see next column.)

SCHEDULE OF GAMES, JANUARY 2010
Jan. 1, 2010 - Sugar Bowl

Jan. 1, 2010 - Rose Bowl

Jan. 4, 2010 - Fiesta Bowl

Jan. 5, 2010 - Orange Bowl

Jan. 7, 2010 - BCS National Championship Game (Pasadena)

POOL OF ELIGIBLE TEAMS
If berths are available after the automatic qualifiers have been identified, then the bowls shall select at-large participants from the "pool of eligible teams," which shall include any Division I-A team that is bowl-eligible and meets the following requirements:
    A. Has won at least nine regular-season games, not including exempted games, and
    B. Is among the top 14 teams in the final BCS Standings

THE BCS IS WORKING
The BCS is succeeding. The nation's No. 1 and No. 2 teams met only eight times in bowl games in the 57 seasons between 1936 and 1992, when the "bowl coalition" (a predecessor of the BCS) was created. No. 1 and No. 2 have met nine times in the 17 years since 1992. In the 11-year history of the BCS from 1999 through 2009, the AP's No. 1 and No. 2 have met eight times.

THE BCS IS NOT ...
It is not a playoff system. It is nothing more than attempt to match the No. 1 and No. 2 teams within the bowl system and to create exciting matchups in four other bowl games.

It is also not an exclusive system that rewards only a few. The University of Utah in 2005 and 2008, Boise State University in 2006 and the University of Hawaii in 2007 demonstrated that a team from a conference without an annual automatic berth can have access to a BCS bowl game.

REVENUE
Before the BCS was created, conferences without automatic berths in the "major" bowl games received no revenue from those games. In the first ten years of the BCS system, more than $90 million was distributed to conferences that do not have an annual automatic berth in the system.

ECONOMIC IMPACT
The total economic impact in the host cities from the five BCS games in January 2009, was estimated at more than $1.2 billion.

A WORD ABOUT A PLAYOFF
The NCAA membership has not proposed the creation of a playoff.
